Men of Reafon and Religion.

PART I.

The share of the second second

These partly relate to the DocTrines I teach, partly to my Manner of teaching them, and partly to the Effects which are supposed to follow from teaching these DocTrines in this Manner.

I. 1. I will briefly mention what those Doftrines are, before I confider the Objections against them. Now all I teach repeats either The Nature and Condition of Jufification, The Nature and Condition of Salvastion, The Nature of Jufifying and Saving Faith, or The Anthor of Faith and Salvation.

2. Firft, The Nature of Juffification. It fome- 1 times means, " Our Acquittal at the laft Day. But this is altogether out of the prefent Queflion: That Julifications whereof our Articles and Homilies (peak, meaning Prefent Forgivenels, Pardon of Sins, and confequently Acceptance with Goo: Who therein b dclarat this Rightenulatif on Mercy, by or for the Realfons of the Sins that are papk, faying, I scuil be mariful to they Unrightenulatif, and thine Iniquities I woll reaumables no more.

* Matt. xii. 37.

I believe, ^c the Condition of this, is Faith: I mean, not only, That without Faith, we cannot be jufified; but allo, that as foon as any one has True Faith, in that Moment he is juftified.

It is allowed allo, that ' Repentance and F Fruity meet for Repetations, go before Faith. Repentance abblictly mult go before Faith. Fruits meet for it, if there be Opportunity. By Repentance, I mean, Conviction of Sin, producing Real Defires and Sincere Rejustance, " A Conging our Brother, I centing from eril, doing good, " suing the Ordinances of Goo, and in general 'obeying him according to the Measure of Grace which we have received. But thefe, I cannot as yet, term Good Works becaute they do not fpring from Faith and the Love of Goo.

5. By Salvation I mean, not barely, according to the vulgar Notion, Deliverance from Hell, or going to Heaven: But a Prefent Deliverance from Sin, a Re-Rotation of the Soul to its Primitive Health, its Original Purity; A Recovery of the Divine Nature; The Renewal of our Souls after the Image of Goo, in Rightcounfies and True Holines, in Julite, Mercy

This implies all Holy and Heavenly Tempers, and by Confequence all Holinefs of Convertation. Now, if by Salvation we mean, a prefent Salvation

Now, if by Salvation we mean, a prefent Salvation from San, we amont day. Holines is the Condition of it. For it is the Thing itfelf. Salvation, in this Senfey, and Holines are Synominous Terms. We mult therefore fay, We are feered by Faith. Faith is the fole Condition of this Salvation. For without Faith we cannot be this Salvation. For without Faith we cannot be this Salvation. For without Faith we

Without Faith we cannot be thus faved. For we can't rightly ferve Gon, unlefs we love him. And we can't love him, unlefs we know him a neither can we know Gon, unlefs by Faith. Therefore Saleasias by Faith, is only in other Words, The Love of Gon by the Knowledge of Gon: or, The Recovery of the Image of Gon, by a true fpiritual Acquaintance with him.

4. Faith, in general, is, a Divine, Sopenatural, Soget of Thisps out feel, not differentiable by our Bodily Senfer, as being either Paft, Future or Spiritual, South mplies, not only a Divine Subge, That GOD and in Christener, that Christ leich for the start for the Construction of the Work test in the Christener, that Christ leich for And the Moment a penimer Simor believes this, Gon worken subge the South S

Let for the Counter-Adult for full Grant the Blady, there the Ear, after the the High Care in the Back.

5. The first Sowing of this Seed, I cannot conceive to be other than Inflattaneous: Whether I confider Experience, or the Word of Gob, or the very Nature of the Thing—However I contend not for a a Evidence or Conviction.

Circum-

Circumftance, but the Subftance; if you can attain it another Way, do. Only fee that you do attain it; for if you fall fhort, you perifh everlaftingly.

This Beginning of that Vat, Inward Change, is dually termit Tek New Birds. Baptifin is the consurd Sign of this inward Gratee, which is inprofed by our Church, to be given with and thro' that Sign to all Jafante, and to thole of Riper Years, if they repeat and believe the Golfel. Bur how extremely ild are the Common Diffusteon this Head J I tell a Sinner, "You mult be born again on." No, day yoo, He was born again in Baptim. Therefore he cannot be born again now." Alsa! What triffings its is What if he was zken a Child of Gop J He is new manifelly a Child of the Devel. For the Works of his Fahrand Child of the Devel. For the Works of his Fahrand the Devel. The the Works of his Fahrand go thro' an entire Change of Heart. In one to yet buppic," dy on yourffel would call that. Change, The New Birth. In him, call it what you will but tenember meantime, That I feither he or you dio without it, your Baptim will be to far from profing wou, that it will greatly increafe your Damanation.

6. The Aucher of Faith and Salvation is Gon actions. It is he that works in us both to will and to do. He is the Sole Giver of every Good Ocift, and ad the Sole Author of every Good Work. There is no more of Power than of Meriti in Man ; but as all Merit is in the Son of Goo, is uwhat he has done and faffered for us, fo all Power is in the Spirit of Goo. And therefore every Man, in order to barder to barder the element of the order of the spirit.

Altho' no Man on Earth can explain the Particalar Manarr, wherein the Spirit of Gop works on the Soal, yet wholever has thefe Fraits, cannot but know and feel that Gop has wrought them in his Heart. Sometimes, He ach more patiticalarly on the Underflanding, opening or inlightning it, (as the Scripture (peaks)

(5) fpeaks) and revealing, unveiling, difcovering to us the deep Things of GOD.

Sometimes he acts on the Wills and Affections of Men ; withdrawing them from Evil, inclining them to Good, infpiring, (breathing, as it were) Good Thoughts into them : So it has frequently been express, by an eafy, natural Metaphor, ftrictly analogous to T,, wreven, Spiritus, and the Words used in most Modern Tongues allo, to denote the Third Person in the Everbleffed Trinity. Bat however it be expred, it is cer-tain, all true Faith, and the whole Work of Salvation, every Good Thought, Word and Work is altogether by the Operation of the Spirit of GOD.

II. 1. I come now to confider the Principal Objections, which have lately been made against these Doctrines

I know nothing material which has been objected, as to the Nature of Jultification : But many Perfons feem to be very confuled, in their Thoughts concerning it, and fpeak as if they had never heard of any Juftification, antecedent to that of the laft Day. To clear up this, there needs only a clofer Infpection of our Articles and Homilies ; wherein Juffification is always taken, for the Prefent Remifion of our Sins.

But many are the Objections which have been warm-ly urged, against the Condition of Justification, Faith Alone : Particularly in two Treatifes, the Former intitled, The Notions of the Methodifts fully disproved : The Second. The Notions of the Methodifts farther difproved. In both of which it is vehemently affirmed, 1. That this is not a Scriptural Doctrine. 2. That it is not the Doctrine of the Church of England.

It will not be needful to name the Former of thefe any more ; feeing there is neither one Text produced therein, to prove this Doctrine Unfcriptural, nor one Sentence from the Articles or Homilies, to prove it contrary to the Doctrine of the Church. But fo much of the Latter as relates to the Merits of the Caufe, I will endeavour to confider calmly. As to what is Perfonal. (6) fondl, I leave it as it is. GOD be merciful to me, a sinner !

2. To prove this Dockrine Unfortpural, "That " Bith " alone is the Condition of Julification," you alledge, "That " Sanchifection, according to Scripture, mult yo "before it?" To evince which, you quote the following Texes, which I leave as I find them : * Ge, älight all Nation-teaching them to before all Bitms, exherfaceure I have commanded them. * He that heliceuth and is hoptized fould be found. * Plet that heliceuth and Remiffion of Sins. * Repeat and be hoptized every us of you, for the Remiffield "Sins. * Repeat and be concerta, shat your Sins may be blatted out. * By one Offering be habit perfetted for ever them that are familied. You add, " St. Paul tanght & Repeatance toward GOD, and " Faith leavest and Lead Yogitu Christ 3 and Calls * Re-" pentness from dead Works, and Faith toward Ged. " ford Principle."

You fuljoin, "" But y are suched, by he, but ye are "fontifield, but y are i pilled. By acadell is meant "their Baptifins; and by their Baptifin is meant, fird "their Santification, and then teder juffictanton". This is a fast begging the Queficion i you take for granted, the very Font which you ought to prove. "St. Peter " allo, you fay, affirms, that Baptifin dait fores at or ' pillity as." Again, you Bapt Cogetion: You take for granted what I uttriy deny, oris. That fowe and failif is a kere Synonymous Tenns. "I'll this is provid, you can draw no Inference at all i for you have no Foundation whereon to build.

I conceive their and all the Scriptures which can be quoted to prove Sandification antecedents to judification, [4] they do not relate to our Final Judification) prove only (what I have never denied). That Rependence, or Convition of Sin, and Pruits meet for Repentance, precede that Faith whereby we are judified: Mut hy no Means, that the Love of Gon, or any Branch of Trae Holinefs, mult or can precede Faith.

^a Matt. xxviii. 19, 20. ^b Mark xvi. 16. ^c Luke xxiv. 47. ^d A3t ii. 38. ^c c. iii. 19. ^f Heb x. 14. [‡] A3t xx. 21. ^b Heb, vi. t. 3. It is objected, Secondly, That Juflification by Faith alone, is not the Doctrine of the Church of England.

"You believe, fays the Writer abovemention'd, that "no Good Work can be previous to Julification, nor "confequently a Condition of it. Bat Goo be prais'd, "our Church has no where deliver'd fuch Aboninable " Doctrine." Proge 14.

" The Clergy contend for Inward Holineß, as pre-" toos to the First Judification— This is the Doctrine " they universfully inclucate, and which you cannot op-" pole without contradicting the Doctrine of our " Church." Page 26.

 All your ftrongelt Perfuaîtres to the Love of Gon,  will not blanch over the Deformity of that Dec- trine, That Men may be julified—by Faith alone—  Unlefs you publickly recant this berrid Doctrine,  your Faith is vain. Page 27.

" If you will vouchfafe to purge out this venomous " Part of your Principles, in which the cubde, effential, " fundamental, irreconsileable Difference, as you very " juffly term it, mainly confils, then there will be found " to far no Diffagreement between you and the Clergy " of the Church of England. ibid.

4. In order to be clearly and fully fatisfied, what the Doctrine of the Church of England is (as it flands opporite to the Doctrine of the Animomian, on the one Hand, and to that of Jufification by Works on the other) 1 will fimply fee down what occurs on this Head, either in her Livrayy, Articles or Homilies.

" Spare Thou them, O Goo, which confess their " Fealth: Reflore thou them that are position, according " to thy Promifes declared unto Mankind in Christ Jefu, " our Lord."

"He pardoneth and abfolveth all them that truly re-" pent and unfrignedly believe his holy Golpel."

" Almighty Gon, who doft forgive the Sins of them " that are powiest, create and make in us new and " contrib elears ; that we contrib [dumating our Sing " and acknowledging our Wretchednaft, may obtain of " thee perfect Remillion and Forgiveneß, thro! Jefas " Chrift our Lod." Collect for dMwrdatedice.

Al-

" Almighty God-hath promifed Forgiveness of Sins to all them that with bearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto him." Communion Office.

" Our Lord Jefus Chrift hath left Power to abfolve " all Sinners who truly repent and believe in him." Vifitation of the Sick.

" Give him unfeigned Repentance and fledfaft Faith, " that his Sins may be blotted out." ibid.

"He is a merciful Receiver of all true, penitent Sin-"ners, and is ready to pardon us, if we come unto him "with f.ithful Repentence." Commination Office.

Infants indeed our Church Suppose to be judified in Baptifin, altho' they cannot then either believe or repear. Bat the exprelly requires both Repeat-nee and F-iths, in those who come to be baptized when they are of Riper Years.

As earnefly therefore as our Church inculcates, Juffifeation by Faith alone, the neverthelets fuppoles Repentance to be previous to Faith, and Fraith meet for Repentance: Yea, and Universal Holinets to be previous to Final Juffication, as evidently appears from the following Words:

"Let us befeech him-that the Reft of our Life "may be pure and holy, fo that at the laft we may come to his eternal Joy." Abfolution.

" May we ferionly apply our Hearts to that Holy and Heavenly Wildom here, which may in the End bring us to Life eventaling." Vijitation of the Sick. " Raife us from the Death of Sin unto the Life of Rightcounfes,--that at the latt Day we may be " found acceptable in thy Sight." Burial Office.

" If we from henceforth walk in his Ways,-feeking " always his Glory, Chrift will fet us on his Right Hand." Commination Office.

5. We come next to the Articles of our Church : The former Part of the Ninth runs thus :

Of Original or Birth Sin.

" Original Sin—is the Fault and Corruption of the "Nature of every Man—whereby Man is very far gone " from Original Righteoufnefs, and is of his own Na-" ture 3. That as the Meritorious Caufe of Judification is, The Life and Death of Chrift; fo the Condition of it, is Faith, Faith Alone; and

4. That both Inward and Outward Holinefs, are confequent on this Faith, and are the Ordinary, Stated Condition, of Final Juftification.

o. And what more can You defire, who have hitherto oppofed Jufification by Faith Alone, merely upon a Principle of Confcience ; becaufe you was zealous for Holinefs and Good Works ? Do I not effectually fecure thefe from Contempt, at the fame Time that I defend the Doctrines of the Church ? I not only allow, but vehemently contend, That none fhall ever enter into Glory, who is not Holy on Earth, as well in Heart, as in all Manner of Conversation. I cry aloud, Let all that have believed, be careful to maintain Good Works : And, Let every one that nameth the Name of Chrift, depart from all Iniquity. I exhort even those who are confcious they do not believe, Ceafe to do Evil, learn to do well : The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand ; therefore repent, and bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance. Are not these Directions the very fame in Subftance. which you yourfelf would give to Perfons fo circumfanced ? What means then this endless Strife of Words ? Or, what doth Your arguing reprove?

10. Many of those who are perhaps as zealous of Good Works as you, think I have allow'd you too much. -Nav, my Brethren, but how can we help allowing it. if we allow the Scriptures to be from Gon ? For is it not written, and do not you yourfelves believe, Without Holinels no Man Iball fee the Lord? And how then. without fighting about Words, can we deny, That Holinefs is a Condition of Final Acceptance ? And, as to the first Acceptance or Pardon, does not all Experience as well as Scripture prove, That no Man ever yet truly believed the Gafpel, who did not first repent? That none was ever yet truly convinced of Righteoufnels. who was not first convinced of Sin ? Repentance therefore in this Senfe, we cannot deny to be necessarily previous to Faith. Is it not equally undeniable, That the running back into known, withil Sin, (fuppofe it were Drunkennefs or Uncleannefs) fliffes that Repentance or Conviction ? And can that Repentance come to any good Iffue in his Soul, who refolves Not to forgive his Brother ? Or who obflinately refrains from what Gop convinces him is right, whether it be Prayer or hearing his Word ? Would you fcruple yourfelf to tell one of thefe. " Why, if you will thus drink away all " Conviction, How thou'd you ever truly know Your " Want of Chrift? Or confequently, believe in Him? " --- If you will not forgive your Brother bis Tref-" paffes, neither will your Heavenly Father forgive You " your Trefpaffes-If You will not ask, how can you " expect to receive ?-If You will not hear, how can " Faith come by bearing ? It is plain, You grieve the " Spirit of GOD ; You will not have Him to reign " over You. Take Care that he do not utterly depart " from you. For unto Him that bath, thall be given : " But from bim that bath not, i. e. ufes it not, thall be " taken away even that which he hath." Wou'd you fcruple, on a proper Occafion to fay this? You cou'd not scruple it, if you believe the Bible. But in faying this. You allow all which I have faid, viz. That previous to Justifying Faith, there muff be Repentance, and if Opportunity permit, Fruits meet for Retentance.

11. And yet I allow You this, That altho' both Repertance and the Fraits thereof are in Source Source mocellary before Julification, yet noither the one nor the other is needfary in the fame Source or in the fame Degree with Faith. Not in the fame Degree. For in whatever Moment a Man believen (in the Christian Seafe of the Word) he is julified, his Sim are blotted out; if Faith is reader to kind for Reference of the Bar it is net fo, at whatever Moment he reports, or brings forth ang or all the Fraits of Repentance. Faith Alone therefore julifies; which Repentance alone does not; much lefs any outward Work. And configuently, none of these are neceffiry to julification, in the fame Degree with Faith.

Nor in the fame Senfe. For none of thefe has to Direct, Immediate a Relation to Jufification as Faith. This is Proximately neceffary thereto; Repentance, Remetich. Rematch, as it is necfinar to the Increate or Conivmance of Repentance. And even in this Scafe, thefe are only necefinary, on Sappolition—if there be Time and Orportunity for them: For in many Inflances there is not: but Goo cats fhort his Work, and Eath prevents the Prisio of Repentance. So that the General Proportion is not overthrown, but clearly ethboth on the Anthonity of Scripture and the Church, That Faith Alone is the Proximate Condition of Julification.

III. r. I was once inclined to believe that none world openly object, against what I had any where faid of the Notare of Schourize. How greatly then was I furprized forme Months ago, when I was flawm a kind of Circular Letter, which one or thofe whom i.ee Holy Gloß hat made Owerfers of his Charch. I was informed had feat to all the Ciergy of his Discret!

Part of it ran (nearly, if not exactly) thus :

"There is Great Indifcretion in preaching up a Sort "Religion, as the True and Only Chriftianity, which "in their own Account of it, confils in an Brahu-"failtick Ardor, to be underflood or attained by very "few, and not to be practified without breaking in " upon the Common Duties of Life."

O my Lord, what Manner of Words are thefe ! Soppoing Candor and Love out of the Queflion, are they Words of Truth ? I dare flake my Life upon it, there is not One True Claufe in all this Paragraph.

The Propositions contained therein, are thefe :

1. That the Religion I preach confifts in an Enthufiaffick Ardor :

2. That it can be attained by very few :

3. That it can be underflood by very few : . . .

4. That it cannot be practifed without breaking in a apon the Common Duties of Life. (16) 5. And that all this may be prov'd by my own Account of it.

L carnefily intreat your Grace, to review my own Account of it, as it thinds in any of my former Writings: Cr to confider the flort Account which is given in This. And if you can thence make good any one of thofe Propertions, I do hereby promile before Goo and the World, That I will never preach more.

At prefers 1 do not well underland what your Grace means by "An Enhuminfic Ardox," Surely an do not mean, The low of Gool No, not though a poor, pardowl Simen thould earry it ρ for, as to Low the Lord his Goo, with all his Heart, and with all his Soul, and with all his Strength | Bur This alone is the Ardor which | preach q_0 , as the Foundation of the Twe and Oxf Orlifoxing," I pray Goo, for to fill your whole Heart therewith, that you may praife him for over and ever !

But why fhould your Grace believe, That the Love of Gon, can be attained by vary Few ? Or, that is can be anticipated by vary Few ? All who attain it, undertiond it well. And did not He who is loving to exeted at well. And did not He who is loving to reatry idea defigu, that very Man fhould attain true Love ? O that all would know in this their Day, the Things that make for their Peace !

And cannot the Lave both of Gop and our Neighboar be pradify subtast breaking in agost the Common Datits of Life? Nay, can any of the Common Daties of Life be rightly pradified without them? I apprehend, not. I apprehend I am then laying the True, the Only Foundarion for all thofe Duries, when I preach Than flath lows the Lard thy GOD with ell thy flator, and thy Neighboar authy folf.

2. With this Letter was feat (I believe to every Clergyman in the Diocely the Pamphele initide, Objevention on the Cowind and Behaviour, of a certain Scat, shall signifying if it he Nome of Muthodith, It has been generally imposed to be wrote by a Perfonwho is every Way my Saperior. Perhaps one Reason why He did not inferibe his Name was, that his Greatreds might not make me affatid: And that I might have Liberty to fland, as it were, on Even Ground, while I answer for myfelf.

In confidering, therefore, fuch Parts of thefe Obforwations, as naturally fall in my Way. I will take that Method which, I believe, that Author defires, ufing no Ceremony at all; but fpeaking as to an Equal, that it may the more eafily be differn'd, where the Truth lies.

The first Query relating to Doctrine, is this :

"Whether Notions in Religion may not be heighten'd to fuch Extremes, as to lead Some into a Difregard of Religion itfelf, thro' Defpair of attaining fuch exalted Heights? And whether Others who have imbibed those Notions, may not be led by them, into a Difregard and Difefteem of the Common Duties and Offices of Life ? To fuch a Degree, at leaft, as is inconfiftent with that Attention to them, and that Diligence in them, which Providence has made necessary to the Well-being of Private Families and Public Societies, and which Christianity does not only require in all Stations, and in all Conditions, but declares at the fame Time, that the Performance even of the lowest Offices in Life, as unto GOD, (whofe Providence has placed People in their feveral Stations) is truly a Serving of Chrift, and will not fail of its Reward in the next World ?"

You have interwoven fo many Particulars in this General Queflion, that I must divide and answer them one by one.

2. 1. Whether Notions in Religion may not be heighten'd to fuch Extremes, as to lead Some into a Difregard of Religion itfelf?

A. They may. But that I have fo heighten'd them, it lies upon you to prove.

2. 2. Whether Others may not be led into a Difregard of Religion, through Defpair of attaining fuch exalted Heights ?

A. What Heights? The Loving Gos with all our Heart? I believe, this is the most exalted Height in Man or Angel. But I have not heard, that any have been led into a Difegard of Religion, through Defpair of attaining this.

2. 3.

2. 3. Whether Others who have imbibed thefe Notions, may not be led by them, into a Difregard and Difetteem, of the Common Duties and Offices of Life i

A. My Notions are, "Three Religion is the loving Goo with all our Heart, and our Neighbour as oerfelves; and in that Love abltaining from all Evil, and doing all pofible Good to all Men." Now, it is not pofible in the Nature of Things, That any thord be led by thefe Netions, into either a Diffegurad or Difelemen of the Common Duties and Offices of Life.

 \mathcal{Q}_{2} 4- But may they not be led by them into fuch a Degree at leaft, of Difregard for the Common Duties or Life, as is inconfiltent with that Attention to them, and Diligence in them, which Providence has made neceflikry?

A. No. Quite the reverfe. They lead Men to difcharge all those Duties with the firsteft Diligence and closeft Attention.

2. 5. Does not Chriftianity require this Attention and Diligence, in all Stations and in all Conditions ? A. Yes.

2. 6. Does it not declare, that the Performance even of the lowed Offices of Life, cs unto GOD, is truly a ferving of Chrift ? And will not fail of its Reward in the next World ?

A. It does. But whom are you confuting ? Not me. For this is the Doctrine I preach continually.

3.Query the Second, "Whether the Enemy of Chrifilanty may not find his Account, in carrying Chriftanity, which was defiged for a Rule to All Stations, and All Conditions, to fach Height as make it failing practicable by a cery free, in Comparison, or rather by none?

I antiver, 1. The Height to which we carry Chrifinity (as was been one oblerved) is this, Usua phol. I was the start by GOD waits oil if y Harst, and Ig Neighbourn at Ugld? 2. The Enemy of Chriftiany emnot find his Account, in our carrying it to ibit Hight. 3. You will not fay, on Reflection, That Hight. 3. You will not fay, on Reflection, That Chriftianity even in this Height, is practicable by every Jow, or rather by near You yourieff will conted, This This is a Rule (as Gon defign'd it fhould) for all Stations, and all Conditions.

Query the Third. "Whether, in particular, the carrying the Dokine of Julification by Fath elsens (toch a Height, as not to allow that a Careful and Sincere Olfervance of Moral Duties is fo much as a Careful affine of our Acceptance with Gon, and of our being julified in his Sight: Whether this, I fry, does not naturally lead People to a Digragard of thole Daties, and a low Rifeem of them; or rather to think them no Part of the Christian Religion y"

I truft Jultification by Faith alone, has been to explained above, as to fecure, not only a High Effeem, but alfo a careful and fincere Obfervance of all Moral Duties.

4. Query the Fourth. "Whether a due and regular Attendance on the Public Offices of Religion, puil dy Good Men in a ferious and compofed Way, does not better advert the true Bado of Devotion, and is not a better Evideoc of the Co-operation of the Holy Spirit, than these faident Agonies, Roarings and Streamings, Trenblings, Dropping down, Roarings and Madmetles, into which their Hearers have been call?" I mult adver this Query likewife, Part by Part.

2. I. Whether's due and regular Attendance on the Public Offices of Religion, paid in a ferious and compofed Way, by Good [i. e. Well-meaning] Men, does not aniwer the True Ends of Devotion ?

A. I furpole by Devention you mean Pahlic Worhip 1 by the twa Ends of it. The Love of Goo and Man: and by a due and regular Attendance on the Pahlic Office of Religion, paid is a stream and compoind Wor, the going as often as we have Oppotunity to our Pathic Guarch, and to the Stermenn this directance of the Optime Quetions in, "Whether this directance of the Optime Quetions in," Whether this directance of the Optime Quetions in, "Wether this directance of the Optime Quetion of the Optime does: and fonctimes it does not. I mylfel dum aitto of Goo many Yeans: and yet an conditions to mylfel, that during that whole Time, I had no more of the Love of Goo than a Stoae, And I one of the Dave of Goo than a Stoae. And I know many Hundreds, perhaps Thoufands, of ferious Perfons, who are ready to tellify the fame Thing. Q. 2. But is not this a better Evidence of the Co-

2. 2. But is not this a better Evidence of the Cooperation of the Holy Spirit, than those fudden Agonies ?

A. All their Perform, as well as I, can telting alor that this in so Evidence at all of the Cooperations of the Holy Spirit. For fome Years I attended their Public Offices, heavel I cannol and the samifal for Non-stitendance. And many of their attended their Non-stitendance. And many of their attended their second their Persets tild hybers theor, or heavely they would not logit their Character. Many more, because they confounded the Means with the End, and funced this Oper Operatum would bring them to Hearen, How many Thoufands are now under this throug Delution? Beware, you bring not their Blood on your own Head I

2. 3. However, does not this Attendance better answer those Ends, than those Roarings, Screamings, Sc?

I suppose you mean, " Better than an Attendance on that Preaching, which has often been accompanied with these."

I anfwer. 1. There is no Manner of Need to fet the one in Opposition to the other : Seeing we continually exhort all who attend on our Preaching, to attend the Offices of the Church. And they do pay a more regular Attendance there, than ever they did before. 2. Their attending the Church did not, in fact, answer those Ends at all, till they attended this Preaching alfo. 3. It is the Preaching Remiffion of Sins thro' Jefus Chrift, which alone anfwers the True Ends of Devotion. And this will always be accompanied with the Co-operation of the Holy Spirit; tho' not always with Sudden Agonies, Roarings, Screamings, Tremblings, or Droppings down. Indeed, if Gop is pleas'd at any Time to permit any of thefe, I cannot hinder it. Neither can this hinder the Work of his Spirit in the Soul : which may be carried on either with or without them. But, 4. I cannot apprehend it to be any Reafonable Proof, That " this is not the Work of Gop," that a convinced Sinner fould hould full into an Extreme depuy, beto of Eulopain Scal, (Journal 5, p. 6.6). That another thould rear for the Diparizing of how Heart (p. 40) that others frow the Diparizing of the Heart (p. 40) that others mult ave do to be found P (p. 5.6), that others fload executingly transformed and parks (p. 5.8). And others, in a deep Senic of the Majelty of Goo, fault full profract agon the Greand, (p. 5.9).

Indeed by picking out one fingle Word from a Sentence, and then pating together what yoa had gend in Silvar of Severty Pages, yoa have drawn a terrible Groupe, for them who look no further than thole Two Lines in ibe Objecturism. But the bare Addition of half a Line to each Word, juit as it fands in the Place from which yoa quoted it, reconciles all both to Scripture and Reafon, and the Speftre-form vanifies away.

You have falsen into your Account, Review, and Mathefast ios. As Influences of the Former, you refer to the Cafe of John Hypón, p. 4,4. and of Thesser Marsfeld, p. 5. For Inflances of Malmfi you may refer to p. 83, p_{2} , p_{1} , p_{2} , p_{3} . I mud divide this Query too, But farif permit me to als, What do you mean by Mofe coulded Steniar in Religion 7 I have faid again and again, I know more cauled Strain, than "I will low Theo, O Lord, my Godt." Effectally, according to the Propriety of Dowld's Experiment This Dermited, let us go on Step by Step.

2. 1. Whether the preaching of "loving Gon from our inmoft Bowels," is not apt to lead Men to Spiritual Pride, and to a Contempt of their Fellow Chriftians?

A. No: But fo far as it takes Place, it will humble them to the Duft.

2 2. Whether an Imagination of being already in a State of Perfection, is not apt to lead Men into this Spiritual Pride ?

A. 1. If it be a Falfe Imagination, it is Spiritual Pride. 2. But True Christian Perfection is no other than Humble Love.

2. 3. Do not Men who imagine they have attained this, defpife others, as only going on in what they account the low and imperfed Way, i. e. as growing in Grace and Goodnefs by Degrees P

A. 1. Men who soly imagine they have attained this, may probably defait those that are going on in Any Way. 2. But the growing in Grace and Goodnes by Degrees, is no Mark of a low and imperfed Way. Those who are Fathers in Chrift, grow in Grace by Degrees, as well as the New born Babes.

2. 4. Do they not defpife those who are working out their Salvation, with an humble Reliance upon the Merius of Chrift for the Pardon of their Sins, and the Acceptance of their fincere tho 'imperfed Services?

A. t. They who really love Gop, defpife no Man. But z. they grieve to hear many talk of thus relying on Chrift, who, tho' perhaps they are Grave, Honelf, Moral Men, yet by their own Words appear, not to love Gop Gop at all; whole Souls cleave to the Duft, who love the World; who have no Part of the Mind that was in Chrift.

6. Query the Sixth. "Whether the fame exalted Strains and Notions, do not tend to weaken the Network and Grevit Relations among Men, by leading the Infofrom iton whole Heads thele Notions are infolded to a Different of their Superiors, while they confider than as in a much leaver Dippolytism than themfere's, tho' thole Superiors are otherwise Jeber and good Men, and regular Attendants on the Ordinances of Religion ?

i have mentioned before, What those exalted Notions are: These do not tend to weaken either the Natural or Cevil Relations among Men; Or to lead Inferiors to a Disfiltem of their Superiors, even where those Superiors are neither Gead nor Sober Men.

Query the Seventh. "Whether a Gradual Improvement in Grace and Goodnef is not a better fromdation of Comfort, and of an Afftrance of a Gofpel New-Birth, than that which is founded on the Doctrine of a Sudden and Informateneous Change; which if theice beamy their Thing; is not enfly dividing wheterof from Fancy and Img@matton; the Workings wheterof while the Perform confiders himtelf in the American while the Perform confiders himtelf in the American Change, and is tanght in due Time to expect it?

Let us go one Step at a Time.

2 1. Whether a Gradual Improvement in Grace and Goodneis, is not a Good Foundation of Comfort?

A. Doubtless it is, if by Grace and Goodness be meant The Knowledge and Love of Gon thro' Chrift.

2. 2. Whether it be not a Good Foundation of an Affarance of a Gofpel New-Birth ?

A. If we daily grow in this Knowledge and Love, it is a Good Proof that we are born of the Spirit. Bat this does in no wife fuperfield the provious Witnip of God's Spirit with Ours, that we are the Children of Goo. And this is properly the Foundation of the Affrance of Faith.

2.3. Whether this Improvement is not a better Foundation of Comfort, and of an Afforance of a Gofpel New-Birth, than that which is founded on the Doctrine of a Sudden and Inflantaneous Change ?

A A better Foundation than these—Thest What? To 'vivat sidehatine' does this feer? A coording to the Rules of Grammar, for all the other Sublantives are in the Grain's Cafe, and confequently to be confider d as only Pars of that which governs them) you mut mean, "A better Foundation than that Konstander and the set of the set

2. 4. Can that Sudden and Infantaneous Change be eafly diffinguifi'd from Fancy and Imagination?

A. Juft as eafily as Light from Darkneis: Seeing it brings forth will a Peace that paffeth all Underflanding, a Joy unfpeakable, full of Glory, the L of Goo and all Mankind filling the Heart, and Power over all Sin.

2. 5. May we not well fuppofe the Workings of Imagination to be more firong and powerful in one who is taught to expect fuch a Change ?

A. Perhaps we may—But flill the Tree is known by its Fraits. And fuch Fruits as thole abovemention'd, Imagination was never yet frong enough to produce, nor any Power, fave that of the Almighty.

7. There is only one Claufe in the Eighth Query, which falls under our prefent Enquiry.

⁴ They make it their Principal Employ, wherever they go, to infil into People a few foremrise Textra of their own; and this with fuch Diligence and Zeal as if the Whole of Chrillianity depended upon them, and all Efforts toward the trutie Chriltan Life, without a Belief of those Tenets, were vain and ineffechal.¹⁹

I plead gaily to this Charge. I do make it my Principal, may, my whole Employ, and thit whereover I go, to initil into the People, a few forevarite Tracti. Only be it obferv'd, they are not my even, but his that feat me) And it is undoublefly true, that this I do, (tho' deeply confeious of my Wang both both of Zeal and Diligence) as if the Whole of Chriflianity depended upon them, and all Efforts without them were void and vain.

I frequently furn them all up in one, for Chrift John (j. e., according to bis Gopble nirther Crassifient awallab any Thing ner Untreamedifien, but Euthenius worketh by Lever. But many Times I Inhill them any hypoth treas the Lord dy GOD with all dy Hent, and with all thy Mind, and with all dy Sanl, and with all thy Mind, and with all dy Sanl, and with all thy Mind, and suith all dy Sanl, and with all thy Mind, and suith all dy Sanl, and there is and by forenght. Thefe are my freewire Tonets, and have been for many Years. O that I could inful them into every So.1 throughout the Land! Ought they not to be infilled with fach Diligence and Zeal, as if the Winde of Chritianity depended upon them? For who can devy, that all Efforts noward a Chritika Life, without devy, the all Efforts noward a Chritika Life, without ever and Practice of their, are utterfy van and necfectual?

8. Part of your Ninth Query is to the fame Effect :

" A few young Heads fet up their own scheme, as the great Sendard of Christianity: And indug steir own Noises to fich a Degree, as to perfex, anhinge, terrify and diffind the Minds of Multitades el People, who have lived from their Infancy under a Gofpel-Minility, and in the regular Exercise of a Gopel-Workliny, and in the regular Exercise of a Soabhering to their Dodrings."

What do you mean by their own Schemes? Their own Notions? Their Dodrines? Are they not poor too? Are they not the Schemes, the Notions, the Dodrines of Jelus Chrift? The Great, Fundamental Toroba

(27) Truths of his Gofpel ? Can you deny one of them? without denying the Bible ?- It is hard for you to kick againft the Pricks !

" They perfuade (you fay) Multitudes of People, that they cannot be True Christians, but by adhering to their Doctrines." Why, who fays they can ? Whofoever he be, I will prove him to be an Infidel. Do you fay, That any Man can be a true Chriftian. without loving Gop and his Neighbour ? Surely you have not fo learned Chrift ! It is your Doctrine, as well as mine, and St. Paul's, Tho' I fpeak with the Tongue of Men and Angels, tho' I have all Knowledge. and all Faith ; Tho' I give all my Goods to feed the Poor, yea, my Body to be burn'd, and have not Love, I am nothing.

Whatever Public Worfhip, therefore, People may have attended, or whatever Ministry they have lived under from their Infancy, they muft, at all Hazards, be convinced of this, or they perifh for ever: Yea, tho' that Conviction at first unbinge them ever fo much ; tho' it fould, in a manner, diffract them for a Seafon. For it is better that they flou'd be perplex'd and terrified now, than they fhould fleep on and awake in Hell.

9. In the 10, 12, and 13th Queries I am not concera'd. But you include me alfo, when you fay in the 11th, " They abfolutely deny, that Recreations of any Kind, confidered as fuch, are or can be innocent."

I cannot find any fuch Affertion of mine, either in the Place you refer to, or any other. But what Kinds of Recreation are innocent, it is eafy to determine by that plain Rule, Whether ye eat or drink, or aubatever ye do, do all to the Glory of GOD.

I am now to take my leave of you for the prefent. But first I wou'd earnestly intreat you to acquaint yourfelf what our Doctrines are, before you make any farther Observations upon them. Surely, touching the Nature of Salvation we agree, That Pure Religion and undefiled is this, To wifit the Fatherlefs and Widow in their Affliction, to do all possible Good, from a Print ciple of Love to Gon and Man : and to keep ourfeloves unfootanfotted from the World, Inwardly and Outwardly to to abflain from all Evil.

But it is objected by the Author of The Nations of the Medeaditi differend," "Sto Fennes tays, Can Kathe Jacow Linn & Landwer, Such a Faith as is without Works cannot bring a Man to Heaven, But this is quite beide the Prefent Quellion.

You object, z. "St. Paul fays, That Faith made perfect by Lover, St. James, That Faith made perfect by Works, is the Condition of Salvation." You mean Final Salvation. I fay to too: But this also is befide the Queffion.

You object, 3. That the Belief of the Gofrei, is called the Obedience of Faith, Rom. i. 5. And 4. That what Judiab terms Believing, St. Paul terms Okeying. Suppofe I grant you both the one and the other, what will you infer? You object, 5. That in one Scripture our Lord is

You object, 5. That in one Scripture our Load is illed Te's Events of them that believe : and in another, The Anther of Eternal Salvatian, to all them that beye him. 6. That to the Galtains St. Paul writes, Naither Circumsifian available any thing, ner Uneirannciane, she Falthe bucking such by Low: A and to the Corintefana, Circumsifian is working, and Universations of Scripture, wherein Unhellef and Ditobedience mus equivalently field." Very true. Ent can you conclude from thence, that we are not Sacoid by Faith share? 14, You

11. You proceed to answer fome Texts which I had quoted. The First is Epb. ii. 8. By Grace ye are faved thro' Faith. " But (fay you) Faith does not mean here, that Grace efpecially fo call'd, but includes also Obedience." But how do you prove this? That Circumftance you had forgot : And fo run off with a Comment upon the Context ; to which I have no other Objection, than that it is nothing at all to the Question

Indeed fome Time after you add, " It is plain then that Good Works are always, in St. Paul's Judgment, join'd with Faith." (So undoubtedly they are, that is, as an Effect is always join'd with its Caufe) " And therefore we are not faved by Faith alone." I cannot poffibly allow the Confequence.

You afterwards cite Two more Texts, and add, " You fee mere Faith cannot be a Condition of Ju-Rification." You are out of your Way. We are no more talking now of Juffification than of Final Salvation. . In confidering Ali xvi. 31. Believe in the Lord Jefus and thou fait be faved. You fay again, " . lere the Word Believe does not fignify Faith only .- Faith neceffirily produces Charity and Repentance ; Therefore, these are expres'd by the Word Believe." i. e. Faith necefiarily produces Holinefs. Therefore Holinefs is a Condition of Holinefs. I want farther Proof. That Paul and Silus fpake unto bin the Word of the Lord ; and that his Faith did in the fame Hour work by Love, I take to be no Proof at all.

You then undertake to thew, that confesting our Sins, is a Condition of Juftification, and that a Confidence in the Love of Gop, is not a Condition. Some of your Words are, " This, Good Sir, give me leave to fay, is the greatest Nonfenfe and Contradiction poffible. It is impoffible you can underfland this Jargon yourfelf, and therefore you labour in vain to make it intelligible to others. You foar aloft on Eagle's Wings, and leave the poor People to gape and stare after you."

This is very pretty, and very lively. But it is nothing to the purpole. For we are not now fpeaking of Juffification : Neither have I faid one Word of " The

" The Condition of Justification" in the whole Tract to which you here refer.

"I in the next Place (fay you) if we are faved (finally you menic) only by a Confidence in the Love of Gop¹ — Here I mult flop you again 1 you are now running beride the Ogelion, on the other Hand. "The Sole Pointion which I here advance is this: True Belieren are faved from Inward and outward Sin by Paith. By Faith Alone the Love of Goo and All Mankind sinde abroad in their Hearts, bringing with it the Mind that was in Chrift, and producing all Holine's of Conversion."

IV. 1. I am now to confider, What has been lately objected, with Regard to the Nature of Saving Faith.

The Anthor 1st mention? " cannot underfined how "thofe Texts of St. John are at all to the Purpok." John iii. 1. Behalf what Manner of Leve the Father Barb befyeed uppen 1; that our of Mond & c. et all the Som of GOD. And c. a. v. 19. We love him, breade be fyel loved at. I answer 1. Thefe Texts were not produced in the Append, by Way of Proof, but of Illuitration only. But, z. I apprend they may be produced as a Proof, both that Christian Faith implies a Confience in the Love of Goo, and that fuch a Confidence has a direct. Tendency to Salvation, to Holinefs both of Heart and Life.

Besid upon it Mamer of Love the Father hall befound apon us, that way food? It is called the Soar of GOD 1 Are not their Words an Expression of Chritika Father A Sa direct an one as can well be concilered A Ad Tappend to every Man, whether they do not exprethe itronget Confidence of the Lovo of Gon Your way Commission this beyond Diffuse. " Leve and Deroving on us the Privileges belonging to fact." Do you not precise, chat you have given up the Cault? Ye A Scute of the great Love and Marcy of Gon, in beftowing upon us the Privileges belonging to his Sons."

The Apoffle adds, Beloved, now are we the Sons of GOD; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: But we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall fee him as he is.

I fuppole no one will fuy, either that the Words are not expredite of Chriltian Faith ; or, that they do not imply the itrongeft Confidence in the Love of Gon. It follows, Andeway Man that bath this Hope in bim, parifield bindfe even as be is pare.

Hence it appears, That this Faith is a Saving Faith, that there is the clofelt Connexion between this Faith and Holines. This Text therefore is directly to the Purpole, in Refpect of both the Propositions to be proved.

The Other is, We love Him, becaufe he first loved Us. And here also, for fear I shou'd fail in the Proof, You have drawn it up ready to my Hands.

" Gop fent his only Son-to redeem us from Sin, by purchaing for us Grace and Salvation. By which Grace we-thor Faith and Repentance have our Sina pardoned—And therefore we are bound to return the Tribute of our Love and Gratitude, and to obey him faithfully as long as we live."

Now, that we have our Sins pardon'd, if we do not know they are parload, cannot bind us either to Love or Obedience. But if we do know it, and by that very Knowledge, or Confidence in the Pardoning Love of Goo, are both bound and enabled to love and obey him, this is the whole of what I contend for.

a. You afterwards object against fome other Texns which I had cited, to illuftrate the Nature of Saving Faith. My Words were, " Hear believing 764 deciming bis faith. I besse that my Redenar Boerd. There after as that he declared My duals in the Word, for the declared My duals in the Word, the factor of the second secon

I went on, "Hear Thomes, when having fen he believed, crying out, My Low and my GOD." Heron you comment thus, "The Meaning of which is think St. Thomes makes a Confession, how of his Faih and Repentance." I agree with you. But you add, "Ib S. Thomes' Confession there is not implied an Alianate of Pardon." You cannot agree with yourdelf in bliss but immediately fubjoin, "It it did imply foote an Alianance, he might well have it, fince he had an immediate Revelacion of it from GOD himfelf."

Yet a little before you endeavoured to prove that one who was not a Whit behind the very chief Apolles had not fuch an Aflurance : Where, in order to fhew that Faith does not imply this, you faid, " St. Peul methinks has fully determined this Point (1 Cor. iv. 4.) I know nothing by myfelf, fays he, yet am I not bereby jultified .- " And if an Apoffie fo illuminated, don't think himfelf juftified"-Then I grant, he has fully determined the Point. But before you abfolutely fix upon that Conclusion, be pleafed to remember your own Comment that follows, on those other Words of St. Paul. The Life I now live, I live by Faith in the Son of GOD, who loved me and gave bimfelf for me. Your Words are, " And no queltion a Perfon indowed with fuch extraordinary Gifts, might arrive at a very eminent Degree of Affurance."-So he did arrive of a very eminent Degree of Affurance, tho' he did not think bimfelf justified !

Tcan fcarce think you have read over that Chapter to the Cologina: Elfe fordy you would not affer, that those Words on which the Strefs lies, |coin, Wbo haltdelivered at grant he Poncer of Derkaff, and helttransflated at into the Kington of bit days Son; is avalousare hove Reduction that with Bloads, even the Forgizawork of Sizeh do not relate to Paul and Timothy whowrote the Eightle, but to the Cologinan, to whem helywrote. 3. You may eafily observe, that I quoted the Council of Trent by Memory, not having the Book then by mie. I own, and thank you for correcting my Mittics take: But in correcting one, you make another. For the Decrees of the Sixth Seffion were not "published on the 13th of January:" But the Seffion itfelf began on that Day.

I cannot help reciting your next Words, altho' they are not exactly to the prefent Queflion.

" The Words of the 12th Canon of the Council of

" If any Man fhall fay that Jutifying Faith is nothing elfe but a Confidence in the Divine Mercy, remitting Sins for Chrift Sake, and that this Confidence is that alone by which we are juflified, let him be accurfed." You add.

" This, Sir, I am fure is True Doftrine, and perfectly agreeable to the Doftrine of our Church. And fo you are not only anathematiz'd by the Council of Trent, but allo condemn'd by our own Church."

"Our Church holds no fuch (candalous and difgraceful Opinion."—According to our Church, no Man can have "the True Faith, who has not a loving Heart." —Therefore Faith is not a Confidence that any Man's Sins are adually forgiven, and he reconciled to Goo." (What have the Premifies to do with the Conclution)

4. To decide this, Let our Church speak for herself. Whether she does not suppose and teach, that every particular Believer knows that bis Sins are forgiven, and be binsfill is reconciled to Gop.

First them, Our Church fuppofes and teaches every particular Believer, to fay concerning himlelf, "In my Baptim I was made a Member of Christ, a Child of GOD, and an Inburitor of the Kingdom of Hawara. And I tohas GOD with bah called me to that Status of Salvastion. And I any GOD that I may continue in the fame, to mp Life, End.

Now does this Perfon know what he fays to be true ? If not, it is the groffelt Hypocrify. But if he does, then he knows, that be in particular is reconciled to Gop.

The next Words I shall quote may be a Comment on thefe : May Gop write them in our Hearts !

" A true Chriftian Man is not afraid to die, who is the very Member of Chrift, the Temple of the Holy Ghoft, Ghoft, the Son of GOD, and the very Inheritor of the everlatting Kingdom of Heaven. But plainly contrary, he not only puts away the Fear of Death, but withes, defires and longs heartily for it. Sermon against the Fear of Death." I. Part.

Can this be, unlefs he has a fure Confidence that he, in particular, is reconciled to GOD?

⁴⁴ Men commonly fear Death, firth becaufe of laving their worldly Goods and Pleafures. 2. For fear of the Pairs of Death s and 3. For fear of perpetual Dammation. But none of their Caufes trouble good Man, becaufe they thay them/leves by true Faith, perfect Charity, and fure Hope of endlefs Joy and Bills evenlaling, "Bids II. Part.

"All there therefore have great Caufe to be fail of Joy, and not for Death nor evenfailing Damasian. For Death cannot deprive them of Jelin Chriit, Death cannot take him from us, nor us from him. Death not only cannot have him from us, nor us from him. us to GOD more perfectly. And thereof a Christian Heart may farely be certified. It is GOD, faith Selong as we have a Define where no be at home with Bat we have a Define where no be at home with GOD." idd.

He that runneth may read in all thefe Words, the Confidence which our Church fuppofes, every particular Believer to have, that he himfelf is reconciled to GOD.

To proceed, "The only Inflrument of Salvation required on our Parts is Faith, that is, a fure Trutt and Confidence, that GOD both hath and will forgive our Sins, that he hath accepted us again into his Favour, for the Merits of Chriff's Death and Paffion." Second Stream on the Paffion.

" But here, we mult take heed that we do not halt with GOD, thro? an unconlant, wavering Faith. Peter coming to Chrift upon the Water, becaule he fainted in Faith was in Danger of drowning. So we, if we begin to waver or doubt, it is to be feared left we fhould fink as Peter did. Not into the Water, but into the bottomlef? It of Hellfrie. Therefore I fay anto you, that we mult apprehend the Merits of Chrift? Death by Faith, and that with a firong and fledfaft Faith: Nothing doubting, but that Chrift by his own Oblation hath taken away our Sins, and hath reflored us again to GOD's Favour," ibid.

5. If it be full faid, That the Church fpeaks only of Men in general, but not of the Confidence of this or that particular Perfor: Even this laft, poor Subterfuge, is utterly cut off by the following Words :

⁴⁴ Tean, O' Man, haft received the Body of Christ Which was once broken, and his Bodo which was field for the Remificion of elg sin. Thou, haft received his Body, to have within level the Father, the Son, and the Holy Gholt, for to endow leve with Grace, and to Holy Gholt, for to endow leve with a fare-endow comfort thew with their Preference. Thous halt received and to affore the of evenlathing Bliffs. I thall add but one Paffage more, from the first Part of the Sermon on the Sacrament.

"Have a fure and confinit Faith, not only that the Death of Chrift is available for all the World, but that he hath made a full and fulficient Sacrifice to thee, a perfect Cleanfing of thy Sins, fo that thou may it fay with the Apolice, be leved there and gave himlef for thee. For this is, to make Chrift thims even, and to apply his Merris unto thef(2'')."

Let every reasonable Man now jodge for himsleft, what is the Sine of our Church as to the Nature of Seeving Pairl, Does it not abundhnutly appear, that the Church of England Hoppfes every particular Believer, to have a fure Confidence, that ha issue are forgiven and be simply reconcilence of the Faith, this analytic confidence, be more frought or peremptorily afferted, than it is in thole Words: "I five begin to waver of confidence, be more furced, left we begin to waver of confit, it is to be ferred, left we fink an Paire did. Not into the Water ; but finto the bottomlefs fir to filled for ?

6. I would willingly difinifs this Writer here. I had faid in the Earneft Appeal (what I am daily more and more confirmed in) that this Faith is ufually given in a Moment. This you greatly diflike. Your Argument against it, if put into Form, will run thus:

⁴⁴ They who first apprehended the Meaning of the Words delivered, then gave their Affent to them, then had Confidence in the Promifes to which they affented, and laftly, loved GOD, did not receive Faith in a Moment.

But the Believers mentioned in the Aits, first apprehended the Meaning of the Words, then gave their Affent, then had Confidence in the Promifes, and Iafly, loved GOD: Therefore

The Believers mentioned in the Afts, did not receive Faith in a Moment."

I deny the Major. They might first Apprehend, the Affent, then Confide, then Love, and yet receive Faith in a Moment In that Moment, wherein their general Confidence became particular, for that each could fay, " $M_F \operatorname{Lord}$, and $m_F \operatorname{COD}$."

One Paragraph more I will be at the Pains to tranferibe. "You infimute, that the Sacraments are only requite to the Well-being of a Vilble Charch: Whereas the Church declares, that the due Adminifration of them, is an Effential Property liberof. I fuppole you hinted this to gratify your loving Disciples the Quakers."

This is flat and plain. Here is a Fact policively averred ; and a Resfon alio aligned for it. Now, do you take yourfielt to be Man of Candor ? I had almof field, of common Honelty? My very Works in the Place refer at us, are, "A Visible Church is a Company of plathal Respite. This is the Effected of it. GOD be pretiched therein, and the Saeramens day administed " your Book to the End., This cannot hurt as: But is may your/bit. And it does not all help your Cauties. If you demonse againt me all the Curies than Gongh to the Reselution, they will not annount to one argument. I am willing (to isr as I know myfelf) to be reproved cline by you or any other. But whatever you do, let it be done in Love, in Patience, in Meekned of Wildom.

V. 1. With regard to the Author of Faith and Salvation, abundance of Objections have been made : fr being a current Opinion, that " Chriftians are not Now to receive the Eoly Ghoft."

Accordingly, whenever we fpeak of the Spritt of Gob. of his Operations in the Soulds of Mun, of his reweaking unto use the Timgs of Gob, or shifting us with good Deires or Tempers ; whenever we memory the Facility his ingless flower, usering in us, according of this good Fleatmer. The general Antiver we have reached the "This hall mark Rearing for Store was with the Aprilliand firth Caritians. But only Excluded a present on the Now."

Thus all the Scriptures, abundance of which might be produced, are fet afide at one Stroke. And whoever cites them, as belonging to all Chriftiant, is fet down for an Eulinfield.

The first Tract I have feen, wrote expressly on this Head, is remarkably intitled,

"The Operations of the Holy Spirit improceptible, and how Men may know, when they are under the Guid dance and Influence of the Spirit."

You begin, " As we have fome among it who pretend, to a more than ordinary Guidance by the Sphrit-(indeed I do not : 1 pretend to no order Guidance, than is ordinarily given to all Chriftian!) it may not be improper to discourte, on the Operations of Gou's Holv Spiri "---

" I o this End, be thou pleafed, O gracious Fourtain of Truth, to affilt me with thy Heavenly Direction in fpeaking of Thee."-

Alas, Sir, what need have you to fpeak any more? You have already granted all I defire, wir. That "we may all now enjoy, and know that we do enjoy, the Heavenly Directan of Gen's Spirit."

I owever

However, you go on, and obferve that the extrandimers Gifts of the Holy Ghoft, were granted to the first Chritians only, but his ordinary Grave to al Chritians in all Ages: Both which you then attemp to enumerate: Only furpending your Difcourie a line, when "fome conceited Extrafight?" come in your Way.

s. You next enquire, " After what Mame the Graces are raid: in our Souls ?" And antwore, "How ro diffinguift thefe Heavenly Motions, from the Nisral Operations of our Minds, we have no Light of different: The Scriptures--deckring that the Operaber be between Feeling which are Properties peculiar to Matter, and the Suggettions of the Spirit i Graces in a bit on in imperceptible Manner; and that there is no fertile Monder: and the attract of the Scripture is and the attract of the Scripture is and the start of the Scripture is and the attract of the Scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is and the attract of the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture is a scripture in the Scripture is a scripture i

I conceive this to be the Strength of your Caufe. To support that Conclusion, That the Operations of the Spirit are Imperceptible, you here alledge, 1. " That all Reafonable Christians believe this." So you fay. But I want Proof. 2. " That there can be no Communications (I fear, you miftook the Word) between the Suggeflions of the Spirit, and Feelings which are Properties peculiar to Matter." How ! Are the Feelings now in Question, Properties peculiar to Matter? The Feeling of Peace, Joy, Love? Or any Feelings at all ? I can no more underftand the Philosophy than the Divinity of this. 3. " That the Scriptures declare, the Operations of the Spirit are not subject to any Senfible Feelings." You are here difproving, as you fuppole, a Propolition of mine. But are you fure you understand it ? By feeling, I mean, being inwardly confcious of. By the Operations of the Spirit. I do not mean the Manner in which he operates, but the Graces which he operates in a Chriftian. Now be pleas'd to produce those Scriptures which declare, " That a Chriftian cannot feel or perceive thefe Operations."

3. Are you not convinced, Sir, that you havelaid to my Charge things which I know not ? I do not "gravely

(39) " gravely tell you (as much an Enthufiast as you over and over affirm me to be) " That I fenfibly feel (in your Senfe) the Motions of the Holy Spirit." Much lefs do I " make this, any more than Convultions, Agonies, Howlings, Roarings, and violent Contorfions of the Body," either " Certain Signs of Mens being in a State of Salvation," or " neceffary in order thereunto." You might with equal Juffice and Truth inform the World, and the Worfhipful the Magistrates of Newcaftle, That I make Seeing the Wind or Feeling the Light, neceffary to Salvation.

Neither do I " confound the Extraordinary with the Ordinary Operations of the Spirit." And as to your last Enquiry, "What is the best Proof of our being led by the Spirit ?" I have no Exception to that just and fcriptural Anfwer, which you yourfelf have given, " A through Change and Renovation of Mind and Heart, and the leading a New and Holy Life."

4. " That I confound the Extraordinary with the Ordinary Operations of the Spirit, and therefore am an Enthufiaft," is also firongly urged, in a Charge delivered to his Clergy, and lately published by the Lord Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry.

An Extract of the former Part of this, I fubjoin, in his Lordfhip's Words.

" I cannot think it improper to obviate the Contagion, of those Enthusiastical Pretensions, that have lately betrayed whole Multitudes, either into Prefumption or Melancholy. Enthufiafm indeed, when detected, is apt to create Infidelity; and Infidelity is fo fhocking a Thing, that many rather run into the other Extreme, and take Refuge in Enthaliafm. But Infidelity and Enthufiafm feem now to act in concert against our Eftab"th'd Religion. As Infidelity has been fufficiently oppofed, I fhall now lay before you the Weakness of those Enthusiastical Pretenfions." Page 1. 2.

Now to confute effectually, and strike at the Root of those Enthusiastical Pretentions,

" First, I shall shew, that it is necessary to lay down fome Method for diflinguishing Real from Pretended Infpiration. Page 3. 5. Ma

⁴⁰ Many Expedience occur in the New Telement or cerning the treatment of the Holy Spirit. But Ma of an Eutophysical Temper, have confounded Palings of a quite different Nature, and have jumbled together their that relate to the Extraordismy Operations of the Spirat, with their that relate only to the Ordisory lisfunction. It is therefore needfary to use found with the feparating the Fallinger, relating to the Operation of the Spirit, that have been for mitipplied to the levence of Eutophysical Textenders. Page 5, 6, 7.

" I proceed therefore to fhew,

" Secondly, that a Diffinction is to be made between those Pallages of Scripture about the Bleffed Spirit that prealiarly belong to the Primitive Church, and those that relate to Chritians in all Ages." Page 7.

"The Exigncies of the Apotholical Age required the Microachies (files of the Spin). But there fore cender, When therefore we meet in the Scripture with an Agcount of hole Bartranstanny Gifes, and likewife with as account of his Ordinary Operations, we mult diffugifik are one from the other. And that not only for our own Saxis faction, but as a Means to loop the Growth of Enabla jim." Pag. 8, 9, 16.

" And fach a Dilindtion ought to be made, by t e bet Methods of interpreting the Scriptures : which molt certainly are an attentive Confideration of the Occulion and Scope of thele Paffage, in concurrence with the General Scale of the Primitive Church." p. 11.

⁴⁴ I propole, Thirdly, to fpecify forme of the chief Palges of Scriptore that are milapplied by Modern Leadsafely, and to flow that they are to be interpreted chiefly, if mit only, of the Apotholical Church ; and that they serv fittle, if at all relate, to the Prefent State of Christians." p. 12.

" I begin, fays your Lordship, with the Original Promise of the Spirit, as made by our Lord a little before he left the World."

I muft take the Liberty to flop your Lordflip on the Threfhold. I deny that This is the Origin Fromife of the Spirit. I expect his Affiltance, in Virtue of many Promifes, fome hundred Years prior to this.

If you fay, " However this is the Original or first Promife of the Spirit, in the New Teflament." No, my Lord ; Thole Words were fpoken long before : He (ball boptize you with the Holy Ghoft, and with Fire.

Will you reply ? "Well, but This is the Original Promife made by our Lord." I answer, not to neither. For it was before this, Jefus himfelf food and cried. If any Man Thirft, let him come unto me and drink, He that believeth on me, as the Scripture bath faid, out of his Belly (ball flow Rivers of living Water: And this he loake of the Spirit, subich they flould re-ceive subo believed on him (is quarker raufamm is msetole is dorfy) If I miltake not, this may more jultly be term'd, our Lord's Original Promile of the Spirit. And who will affert, That this is to be interpreted chiefly, if not only of the Apoftolical Church?" 6. Your Lordfhip proceeds : "It occurs in the 14th and 16th Chapters of St. John's Gofpel; in which he uses these Words"- In what Veries, my Lord ? . Why is not this fpecified ? Unless to furnish your Lordship with an Opportunity of doing the very Thing whereof you before complained, of " confounding Paffages of a quite contrary Nature, and jumbling together those that relate to the Extraordinary Operations of the Spirit, with those that relate to his Ordinary Influences ?"

You cite the Words thus ; When the Spirit of Truth is come, he will guide you into all Truth, and he will freev you Things to come. (Thefe are nearly the Words that occur, Chap. xvi, ver. 13.) " And again, The Conforter, which is the Holy Ghaft, whom the Father will fend in my Name, he shall teach you all Things, and bring all Things to your Remembrance, what forver I have faid unto you. Thefe Words occur in the 14th Chapter, at the 26th Verfe."

* I take it for granted, That the Citation of Texts in the Margin, which is totally wrong, is a Blunder of the Printer's. But. But, my Lord, I want the Original Promife All; the Original (I mean) of thofe made in this very Dicourfe. Indeed your Margin tells us, where it is (Chap. xiv. Ver. 16) but the Words appear not, Taken together with the Context they run thus: If ye lover mak, ktep my Commandment.

And I will pray the Father, and he will give you and ther Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever : Even the Spirit of Truth, whom the World cause raceive, becaufe it feeth bim not, neither knoweth bim. Chap. xiv. ver. 15, 16, 17.

My Lord, fuffici me to enquire, why you flipt own this Text? Wagit not [I appeal to the Searcher of your Heart !) becaule you was conficious to yourfil that it would neceffinily drive you to that unhapp Dilemma, either to affer that for ever, it was any meant only Sixty or Seventy Years ; or to allow, That the Text mult be interpreted of the Ordeanory Operations of the Spirit, in all future Ages of the Church.

And indeed that the Promitie in this Tors bolong your Lordhip's own Conceffion, and from the Toru iself, for whice can dary, that this Comforter or Paraelete is now given to all them that believe?) hut alls from the preceding, an well as following. Works The preceding are, I'y is low ma, keep my Commands what, and i wall they be Torker. Note furthy can want, and will they be Torker. It is given in all Ages The follow the wholes to all Christians in all Ages. The follow the wholes the Torker of Trains, whom the World's are, term the Spirit of Trains, cannot but all Carjinai can, and will receive him for even.

6. The Second Promile of the Comforter, made in this Chapter, together with its Context, flands thus: Judas faith sunds him (up to fleariot) Lord, herewin it that those waits manifelf thyleff unto so, and not unto the World? Ver, za.

Jofus anfavored and Jaid unto bim, if any Man low me, he woll keep my Word. And my Father will loes ken, and we woll come unto him, and make our Abade with him. Vor. 23.

He

He that loweth me not, keepeth not my Word: and the Word which ye hear is not mine, but the Fathers which fent me. Ver. 24.

Thefe Things bave I fpoken unto you, being yet with you. Ver. 25.

But the Comforter, subich is the Holy Ghoff, subom the Father will find in my Name, be suill teach you all Things, and bring all Things to your Remembrance, subaljower I have fuid unto your, Ver. 26.

Now, how does your Lordship prove that this Promife belongs only to the Primitive Church ? Why, 1. You fay, "It is very clear, from the bare Recital of the Words." I apprehend not. But this is the very Queftion, which is not to be begg'd, but prov'd. 2. You fay, The Spirit's bringing all Things to their Remembrance, what for we be had faid unto them, cannot poffibly be applied to any other Perfons but the Apoilles." " Cannot be applied !" This is a flat begging the Queftion again, which I cannot give up without better Reafons. 3. " The Gifts of Prophecy, and of being guided into all Truth, and taught all Things. can be applied only to the Apofiles, and those of that Age who were immediately infpired." Here your Lordship, in Order the more plausibly to beg the Queftion, again "jumbles together the Extraordinary with the Ordinary Operations of the Spirit." The Gift of Prophecy, we know, is one of his Extraordinary Operations; but there is not a Word of it in this Text: Nor therefore ought it to be " confounded with his Ordinary Operations," fuch as the being guided into all Truth, (all that is neceffary to Salvation) and taught all (neceffary) Things, in a due Ufe of the Means he hath ordain'd. Ver. 26.

In the fune Manner, namely, in a Seriors and Confinan Ufe of Proper Mann, Deliver the Affiliance of the Holy Ghoft is given to all Christians, to being all Hings needial to their Remerkrance, exhaplevere Christ hadf johen to them in his Word. So that I fee no Occaion to grant, without fome kind of Proof, (epecally confidenting the Occasion of this, and the Soope of the preceding Verles) That even. "this Promise cannot confidenting the Contain of this confidence the Continue Christian Provide State State State State State State State State State Provide State S poffibly be applied to any other Perfons but the Apofiles."

7. In the fame Difcourfe of our Lord we have a Third Promife of the Comforter. The whole Claufe runs thus:

If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will fend bim unto you. Chap. Not. wer. 7.

And when he is come, he will reprove (or convince) the World of Sin, and of Righteoujness, and of Judgment, ver. 8.

Of Sin, becaufe they believe not on me :

Of Righteoufness, because I go to my Father, and ye fee me no more ;

Of Judgment, becaufe the Prince of this World in judged ; Ver. 9, 10, 11.

I have yet many Things to fay unto you; but ye cannot bear them now : (ver. 12.) But when he fail come, the Spirit of Truth, he will guide you into all Truth-And he will flow you Things to come. Ver. 12.

There is only one Sentence here which has not already been confider d, He will forw you Things to come. And this, it is granted, relates to the Gift of Prephecy, one of the Extraordinary Operations of the Spirit.

The General Conclution which your Lordhip draws, be experient in the Words. "I confequencity all Pretenfions to the Spirit, in the proper, Senfe of the Words of this Promite (i.e. of thefe feveral Texts of St. 7660) are vain and infignificant, sa they are claimded by Modern Europhysics." And in the End of the fame Paragraph you add, " None but the Order fame the start are of a Microardout (or Extraordoury) Kind are NOT PRETENDED to, even by Modern Enterthicity.

My Lord, this is furprizing. I read it over and over, before I could credit my own Fyes. I verify believe this one Claufe, with apprepiadeed Perfors, will be an antwer to the whole Book. You have been vehemently crying out all along against help Enthuloficiton Pretenders ray, the very Defigs of your Book, as you openly declare, was "to Book" the the Growth of their Entinglagin : who have had the' Afforance (as you politively affirm, pag. 6) to claim to themedyes the Extraordiancy Operations of the Holy Spirrit." And here you as politively affirm, That thole Extraordiancy Operations " are NOT FRETENDED To by them at all."

8. Yet your Lordhip proceeds, " The next Palinge of Scripture I fluid mention as peculiarly belonging to the Primitive Times, tho' arithpplied to the Prefent State of Chriftians by Modern Badagfaft; is what relates to the Followoy of took Spirst, and requiry by the Spirst, in the Shi Chapter of the Epille to the Roman," p. 16.

I believe it incombent upon me thoroughly to weigh the Force of your Lordhiy's Residonig on this Head. You begin, " After St. Paul had treated of that Spiritual Principle in Chrillans, which enables them to merrify the Data' of the Body-----he fays, if your Man kaves on the Spirit of Carif, he is more of bit. This makes the Difficultion of a true Chrillans, particularly in Oppolition to the Jean." I appenhend it is juit here, that your Lordhip turns out on the Way, when you fay. "Particularly in Oppolition I emta allow, all long, thread Paul's and Spiritual to the Jean." Such a Particular Oppolition I emet allow, all long, thread Provide The Spiritual to the Imperfection of the Yeard Law." "Yer your Europhips Minist in the full of the the

Yet your Lyndhip's Mind is to full of this, then after repeating the 14th and 14th Vertis (ar many a are fail by the Spirit of GOD, they are the Son of GOD : For you have an a received the Spirit of Bosdage against sfort : But ye hove received the Spirit Agains, subscript year car, Abba, Father I) you add, "In the former Part of this Verfe, the Apolle Howe again the Imperfection of the frequely Law." This allo calls for Proof: Otherwide, it will not be althew again the repeate of the Spirit Minor be althe Spirit and Spirit Contervision in the Spirit Power of Denth, and Hend, in Confequence of H, m Scatter of Denthe, and Hend, in Confequence of H, m well as the freque more or lefs, in the fame Few and Bendage P.

You

Your Lordhip goes on, "In the latter Part of the Verfe ha these the Superiority of the Christian Law to that of the Jean". p. 18. Where is the Proof, my Lordt How does it appear, that he is fpeaking either of the Christian or Jeanily Law, in those Words, To Jean rectical the Spirit of Adphian, subreaking use or Abba Rather P However you infer, "Christian than are the adopted Sonis of Coo, in contra-diminishon to the Jean, as the Permer had the Giffs of the Holy shold, which none of the Latter had at that Time: And the Body of the Greinian over had." No, nor the Body of the Christian never had." No, nor the Proof againd the Jean, it is the very fame againt the Goriginan.

I must oblerve further on the preceding Words, 1. That your Londhip begins here, to rate the Word Cariflowa in a new and peculiar Sende, for the whole Eody of the then Chriftman Church: 2. That it is a had Inference, "as, or because they had the Gifts of the Floy Ghoft, therefore they were the Sons of Gon." On the one Hand, if they were the Children of Gon, it was nets, because they had thole Gifts, and yet be a Child of the Devil.

9. I conceive, not only that your Lordhip has preeved nothing hitherto, no one Point that has any Relation to the Queffion is but that, thriftly fipeking, you have not attempted to prove any thing, having taken for genetic whatever came in your way. In the fame when the standard of the Apolle goes on, Re Spirit widd braveth existing with sur Spirit, that see are the Galaxens of COD. This Fillings, as it is connected with Charling, gone, relates to the general Adoption of the Jones. "I'll his Apolle greates." — How finds proved - By its Connexion with the preceding have significat. It has not yet been provid, that the preceding Pailings eithed has any Relation to thin Matter.

Your Lordihip adds, " But what was the Ground of this Preference that was given to Chriftians? It was plainly the (miraculous) Gifu of the Spirit, which they had,

had, and which the Jews had not?" This Performs given a Christian, was jub before expert by their beaming the Saus of GOD infload of the Jews. Were the Gitts of the Spinit then the Ground of this? Performer? The Ground of their becoming the Saus of GO of Wata an Afterion is this? And now liftle is it mended the I allow, that "their Mincolous Giffs, for the Spinic vere a Tellimourly that Go a schnow-ledged the Christian who work? d'Intendes, dial it not by the Work of the Law, but by the Haring of Path Print Pr

Your Lordhip encludes, "I From thefe Pathges of S. Paul, compared together, it clearly follows, that the forementioned Tayling of the Spirit, was the PLAick Taylings of the Spirit that ease are the Children of COD, ennote pollibly be applied, to the prevent Taylimony of the Spirit given to our own Conference, as is pretended by models. Bubbly, in," p. 20.

If your Conclution, my Lord, will find without the Premities it may. But that it has no Manner of Connection with them, I truit does parely, and will more which your refer. And I believe that Paffage with very litel Comment, will prove, in direct Orgonition to that Conclution, that the Telimony of the Spiriterer mentioned, in out the pathk Topicnum of minculous Gifs, but mut be applied to the product Topicmony of the Spirit, given to our own Conciences.

Is in not evident, that the Apofile is here defining a True Chritian, a Holy Believer I in Oppolition, no. particularly to a Jewe, much lefs to the Jewijh law, but to every unnoly Man, to all, whether Jew of Gorilla, such such after the Hefs. He goes on

For, to be carnelly-minded is Death ; but to be first teally-minded is Life and Peace. Decaule the carnel Mind is Emmit equinft GOD ; for it is not labed at the Lowo of GOD ; naither indeed can be. So then they thus are in the Fieldy, cannot place of GOD. were. 6, -7.8.

The Oppolition between a Holy and an Unholy Man, is fill glaring and underiable. But can any Man dicern, the leaft glimmering of Oppolition, between the Chriftian and the Jewift LAW !

The Apofile goes on, But ye are not in the Fleft, but in the Spirit, if fo be that the Spirit of GOD dwell in you. Now if any Man barve not the Spirit of Chrift, be is none of His. But if Chrift be in you, the Body is dead, because of (or with regard to) Sin, but the Spirit it Life because of Rightsousness. But if the Spirit of Him that raifed up Jelis from the Dead dwell in you, he that raifed up Chrift from the Dead fball alfo quicken your mortal Bodies by bis Spirit which dwelleth in you. Therefore, Brethren, we are Debtors, not to the Flefb, to live after the Flefb. For if ye live after the Flefb ye fhall dies but if ye thro' the Spirit do mortify the Deeds of the Body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of GOD, they are the Sons of GOD. ver. 9-14. Is there one Word here, is there any the least Intimation of mireculous Gifts, or of the Jewif Law? It follows, For ye have not received the Sourit of Bondage again, to fear (fuch as all Sinners have, when they are first firred up to feek Gop, and begin to ferve him from a flavish Fear of Punishment) But y have received the Spirit of Adoption (of free Love aubereby ave cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itfelf

(which GOD bath fent forth into our Hearts, crying, Abba, Father.) beareth Witnefs with our Spirit, that we are the Children of GOD. ver. 15, 16.

I can now willing to leave it, without firther Comment, to the Judgment of every importal Reader, whether is does not appear from the whole Scoge and Tenor of the Text and Context taken togetner, that this Pailing does not refer to the Jewijb Lawa, not to the galdiff Telinary of Mineda's Neither of which can be dragged in, without putting de utmod force on the natural Memming of the Words. And if 60, it will follow, that this Wittend of the Spirit is the periodat Telinary greats on a wone Conference: Which, confequently, all fober Christians may claim, without any Danger of Envirghtform.

Here is a Circumftance highly needful to be obferv'd. before we enter upon this Queftion. Your Lordihip undertakes to fix the Meaning of an Expression used by St. Paul, in the 14th Chapter of his first Episite to the Corinthians. And in order thereto, you laborioully explain Part of the 8th Chapter to the Romans. My Lord, how is this ? Will it be faid, Why this is often alledged to prove the wrong Senfe of that Scripture ? I conceive, this will not falve the Matter at all. Your Lordfhip had before laid down a particular Method, as the only fure one whereby to diffinguish what Scriptures belong to all Christians, and what do not. This. Method is, the Confidering the Occation and Scope of those Passages, by comparing the Text and Context together. You then propole, by the Ufe of this Method, to flew, that feveral Texts have been milapplied by Eminifacts. One of thefe is the 15th Verle of the 14th Chapter of the first Epille to the Corinbham. And to thew, that Embufacts have milapplied this, you comment on the 8th Chapter to the Roman!

However, let us weigh the Comment itfelf. The material Part of it begins thus (p. 22.) " Now he adds another Proof of the Truth of Chriftianity : Likewift the Spirit helpeth our Infirmities (or our Diftreffes, for a Bustian fignifies both.") (I doubt that : I require Authority for it.) " And then he mentions, in what Inflances he does fo, wiz. In Prayers to Gop about Afflictions"- (In nothing elfe, my Lord ? Did he belp their Infirmities, in no other Inftance than this ?) " We know not, fays he, aubat we should pray for, as we ought. THAT IS, whether it be beft for us to bear Afflictions, or to be delivered from them, But the Spirit. OR the Gift of the Spirit, inftructs us how to pray in a Manner agreeable to the Will of Gop." The Spirit, OR the Gift of the Spirit ! What marvellous Reafoning is this ? If thefe " are often put for each other." what then? How is that evinced to be the Cafe here ?

12. "The Apolle goes on, The Spirit if off (p. 23.) maketh Interceffon for us, with Granning which cannot be uttered: TWAY 13, the if offitual or infpired Perfor prayed in that Capacity for the whole Affembly," "THAT 15 I" Nay, That is again the very Point to be proved, elle we get not one Step farther.

The Apolle goes on thus, yere, z_7 . And be the (r, z_4) (periodic the Heart, however, bother in the Mad (r the Spirit (Tarx 1:s, of the (piritue) or infjired Perton) becauge the models harrenging for the Sonint, arcarding to the Will of OOD. Whereas you intended no fuch Thing ! But that up the Whole with that lame and impotent Conclusion, " He leaves it to Gon, whether it be beft they fhould fuffer Afflictions, or be delivered from them."

Had he then that miraculous Gift of Gop, that he might do what any common Chriftian might have done without it? Why, any Perfon in the Congregation might have prayed thus : Nay, could not pray otherwile, if he had the ordinary Grace of Gop : " Leaving it to Gop, whether he flould fuffer Afflictions flill, or be delivered from them." Was it only in the Apoftolical Age, that " the Spirit inftructed Chriftians thus to pray ?" Cannot a Man pray thus, either for himfelf or others, unless he have the miraculous Gift of Prayer !---So, according to your Lordship's Judgment, " To pray in fuch a manner, as in the Event to leave the Continuance of our Sufferings, or our Deliverance from them, with a due Submiffion, to the good Pleafure of Gup," is one of those " extraordinary Operations of the Spirit," which none now pretend to but " modern Enthufiafts !"

I befeech your Lordfhip to confider. Can you coolly maintain, that " the praying with a due Submiffion to the Will of Gon," even in heavy Affliction, is a miraculous Gift? An extraordinary Operation of the Holy Ghoft ? Is this peculiar to the primitive Times ? Is it what none but Enthusiafts now pretend to? If not, then your Lordship's own Account of Praying by the Spirit indifputably proves, that this is one of the ordinary Privileges of all Christians, to the End of the World.

13. " I go on (your Lordifhip adds) 'to another Paffage of Scripture, that has been entirely (p. 27.) mif-applied by modern Entbufiafis. 1 Cor. ii. 4, 5. Yes, it is increditary further to verince, that thele Words have on other Meaning. Bu feft, How will you evince, that they hear this? I are der thereto, your Lordhip argues thus:

" The former form is be the Demonstration of the Spring, with regard to the prophetical Tellimonies of hum. - And two Demonstrations of Powers, much forging the Power of Goo, exercised in Miracles." (P. 38) "Mult:" Why Go? That Names of then fignifies more closular Powers, in allowed-Batt what follows? That is may mean to in this Place? That fill remains to be proved.

Indeed your Lording fays, this " appears from the following Verfe, in which is affigned the Reside for uting this Method of proving Christianity to be tree, avec. That your Parib found and stands in the Wichard Man, but in the Payner of GOD, By the Power of GOD THEREFORE multi-needfully be underflood, the Miracles performed by Christ and his Apolites." By the illative Paritle, Morefree, this Popolition flouid be an Inference from fome other: But what other J cannot yet differm. So that, for the preferin I can only look upon it, as a freth Inflance of begging the Quellitio.

"He goes on in the 7th, 10th and following Verles, to explain this Demonstration of the Spirit and of Power." Bath e does not fay one Syllable therein, either of the ancient Prophecies, or of Miraeles. Nor will it be eafily proved, that he speaks either of one or the other, from the Beginning of the Chapter to the End.

After transcribing the 13th Yerfs, subick Things do' we freak, not the Word subick Mars I Wightm teachth, but outlie the Hay Glogit teachest, comparing thritisal Yeiner with Grinnal, Your Lordhin, adds, "Fom which laft Pallage it appears, that the Words which the Holy Ghoti is tid to teach, unif is the Prophetical Revelations of the Old Tylamont, which were differed appears the Apolles by the fame Spirit." I cannot appeared, how this appears. I cannot as yet fee any Comedia tal between the Primilies and the Conclusion.

Upon

Upon the Whole, I defire any Calm and Serious Man, to read over this whole Chapter ; and then he will eafily judge, what is the natural Meaning of the Words in Queltion : And whether (altho' it be allow'd, That they were peculiarly fulfilled in the Apolitles, yet) they do not manifeftly belong, in a lower Senfe, to every True Minister of Christ ? For what can be more undeniable than this, That our Preaching alfo is vain, unless it be attended with the Power of that Spirit, who alone pierceth the Heart ? And that your Hearing is vain, unless the fame Power be prefent to beal your Soul, and to give you a Faith which flandetb not in the Wifdom of Man, but in the Power of

14. " Another Paffage that (your Lordfhip thinks) has been mifapplied by Entbuffaffs, but was really peculiar to the Times of the Apostles, is I John ii. 20 and 27. (p. 35.) Te have an Unflion from the Holy One, and ye know all Things .- But the Anointing which we have received of him abideth in you : And ye need not that any Man teach you, but as the fame Anointing teachest you of all Things, and is Truth; and is no Lie. And even as it bath taught you, ye fball abide in bim." " Here the Apofiles arms the true Christians against Seducers, by an Argumene drawn from the UnRion, from the Holy One, that was in or rather among them : that is, from the Im-mediate Infpiration of fome of their Teachers." p. 37, Here it refts upon your Lordfhip, to prove (as well as affirm) 1. That is should be translated among : z. That this Undion from the Holy One means, " The Infoiration of fome of their Teachers."

The latter your Lordship attempts to prove thus : " The Infpired Teachers of old were fet apart for that Office, by an Extraordinary Effation of the Holy-Ghoft : Therefore

The Unition from the Holy One here, means fuch an Effusion. I deny the Confequence ; fo the Quellion is ftill to be proved.

Your Lordship's fecond Argument is drawn from the 26th Verfe of the 14th Chapter of St John's Gofpel. F 3

Propofed

Propoled in form, it will fland thus :

" If those Words, He fhall teach you all Thing, relate only to a Miraculous Gift of the Holy Ghing, then these Words, The fame Anointing teacheth you of all Things, relate to the fame Miraculous Gift:

But those Words relate only to a Miraculous Gift: Therefore, these relate to the fame."

I conceive, it will not be very eafy to make good the Confequence in the first Proposition. But I deny the Minor also: the Contradictory whereto, I truth has appeared to be true.

I grant indeed, That the'te Words were more onmonly fulfill, in the Age of the Apolities. But this is altogether confiltent with their belonging is a lower Souly, to all Loridinas, in all Ages : Seeing they have all need of an Unition from the Hay Own, a Superannual Adifiance from the Holy Ghoit, that they may know in the due Life of all proper Means, all Holy know in the due Life of all proper Means, all Holy and the 'soulh Health'. Therefore it is no Esthiologie, to teach. That the Unition from the Holy Os, belongs, to all Christians in all Ages.

t: There is one Topic of your Lordflap's yet motaukla't that is Authority: One you flave wery ficguently made ufe of, and wherein, probably, the Gasenhity of Readers inppole your. Lordflap's grat Strength lies. And indeed when your Lordflap ful mentioned, (p. 1). "The general Senie of the Primittree Church," I prefumed you would have produced for unmercour Authorities, that I hould not easily be able for unmercour Authorities, that I hould not easily be able of undercours and the start of the start of the prime your Lordflap naming only Carifytian, Jerson, forget and Athonachy and the start of the start of the prime of the start of the

However, the their Four can no more be term'd de Frintive Church, than the Church Univerfal, yet confent to abde by their Suffrage. Nay, I will go Step farther till. If any two of thefe affirm, that the leven Texts belong only to the epicificial day, and set to the Corriginous of functeding Times, I will give up the whole Caule.

But let it be observed : If they should affirm, that these primarily belong to the Chriftians of the apopolical Age, Age, that does not prove the Point, becaufe they may in a ficandary Serife belong to other notwithilanding. Nor does any of them ipeak home to the Queltion, unleft he maintain in express Terms, that their Texts refer only to the minacalaus Gifts of the Spirit, and net at all to the State of ardianry Christians.

16. Concerning thole three Texts, John xiv. ver. 16, and the z6, and John xvi. ver. 13. "I could eafly add (fays your Lording.") the Authonizes of Chyp-John and the other ancient Commentators." St. Chyp-John & Authority I will confider now, and that of the others, when they are produced.

It is granted, that he interprets not only John xvi. 13. but allo both the Paflages in the 14th Chapter, as primarily belonging to the Apolles. Yet Part of his Comment on the 26th Verfe, is as follows.

" Such is that Grace (of the Comforter) that if it finds Sadnefs, it takes it away ; if evil Defire, it confumes it. It cafts out Fear, and fuffers him that receives it to be a Man no longer, but tranflates him, as it were, into Heaven. Hence none of them counted any thing his own, but continued in Prayer, with Gladness and Singlenels of Heart. For this chiefly is there need of the Holy Ghoft. For the Fruit of the Spirit is Joy, Peace, Faith, Meckneß. Indeed fpiritual Men often grieve ; but that Grief is fweeter than Joy. For whatever is of the Spirit, is the greateft Gain, as whatever is of the World, is the greateft Lofs. Let us therefore in keeping the Commandments' (according to our Lord's Exhortation, ver. 15.) " fecure the unconquerable Affiftance of the Spirit, and we shall be nothing inferior to Angels."

Sc. Caryofam here, after he had theren, that the Promile of the Commoter primarily belanged to the Apolles: (And who ever queficaned it?) underiably teaches; (And who ever queficaned it?) underiably di Chritian: To all foritant Men, all who here the Communication: I appeal therefore to all Mankind, Whether his Autority tooching the Fromile of our Lord in cheir Team, does not everthrow the Propolition it was cited to prove?

Altho' yout Lordfhip names no other Author here, yet Page 42. you fay, " The affigued Senfe of the Paffage was confirmed by the Authority of Origan" It is needful therefore to add, what occurs in his Works, with regard to the prefent Queflion.

He occationally mentions this Promife of our Lord, in four feveral Places. But it is in one only that he fpeaks pertinently to the Point in hand, (Vol. II. 903, Edit, Bened.) where his Words are thefe:

When the Spirit of Trath is come, he woll guide you into all Trath, and he will track you all Things. "The Sum of all good Things could show that a Manhe found worthy to receive the Grace of the Holy Ghoft. Otherwife, nothing will be accounted perfect in him, who hath not the Holy Spirit."

Do thefe Words confirm that "Senfe of thefe Faifages which your Lordblip had affigued?" Reaher do they not uterly overturn it? And prove, has above that althot this Promife of our Lord, premarily belong to the Apolles, yet in the freendary Senfe, it belongs (according to Origen's Judgment) to all Christians in all Ages 7

77. The fourth Text mention d as belonging to the full children only, is Remi vill, 15, 16 and p 26, it is find, "This Interpretation is confirmed by the Authority of the mode minimum Fathers." The Keader is particularly refered to Origina and Green in Iscan. But here feems to be a Millake of the Name. Jerom in Iscan Hould mean, Jerom upon the Flace, upon Rem. vill. 15, 16. But I cannot precive, that there is one Word upon that Flace, in all St. Jerom's Works.

Nor indeed has Origen commented upon it any more than Jerom. But he occasionally mentions it in these Words:

"He is a Babe who is fed with Milk-but if he feeds the Things that are above-without doubt he will be of the Number of thofe, who receive not the Spirit of Bendage again unto Fan, but the Spirit of Ampion, tho' whom they coy, Abbe Farber." Vol. 1, p. 79.

Again, "The Fainels of Time is come-when they who are willing, receive the Adoption, as Peul teaches in these Words, Te bary pat received the Spirit of Bosdage dage again who Fear 3 but ye have received the Spirit of Maption, subjectly we cry, Aloba Father 1 And it is write, ten in the Golgel according to St. John 76 an amay as received him, to them gave be Power to become the Sons of GOD, even to them that believe in his Name. Vol. I. p. 221, 232.

Yet again, " Every one that is born of Gon, and doth not commit Sin, by his very Actions faith, Our Father which art in Heaven, the Sgivit idelf bearing Witnefs with their Spirit, that they are the Children of GOD." bid.

According to Origen therefore, this Toffinony of the Spirit, is not any sublick Teltimony by Miracla, peculier to the full Times, but an inword Tellimony, belonging in common to all that are born of GOD. And confequencity the Authority of Origin does not "confirm that Interpretation" neither ; but abfolately defnoy it.

16. The half Authority your Lordbing appends to on this Tests, " That of the grant Toka Carlydfon, who rescens the Toffmeng of the Spirit of Adoption by which we cry Abba Pather' a mong the microachase Gifts of the Spirit." " I rather chafe (your Londbing hadba, p. 45) to refer you to the Words of St. Carlydfon, p. 45) the refer Account of the Toffmeng of the Spirit."

However, I believe it will not be Labour loft, to transcribe a few of those Words.

It is in his Comment on the 14th Verfe, that he first mentions, St. Pearl's Comparison between a Jesu and a Chriftien. How fairly your Lordhip has reprefemed this, let every Reader judge.

Therefore he adds, "'It hower not resided the Spirit of Bandage again and For: I sharp show resided the Spirit of Manipage and the Spirit of Faret — Obferve their whole Life, and you will know clearlys. "" He brings also another Proof, That we have the Spirit of Adaption, by solid, fays he, water, dis, Robers — This is the first Word we utter, park are bangared bibles testing, if this and magnables hereas we spin: after thole amazing Throes (or Bitrl-Fang) and that firange and wonderful Manner of bringing forth."

" He brings yet another Proc" of the Superiority of thofe who had bit Spirit of Adigitan. The Spirit ight beareth sainaft suits care Spirit that new ore the decilitent of GOD. Now let any reafonable Man judge how far your Lordhip has "tranflated the Words of St. Chrylofian ⁹ And whether he reckons the Teftimony of the Spirit among the Miraculau Gifts of the Holy Ghoft " Or among

(59) among those Ordinary Gifts of the Spirit of Chrift.

which if a Man have not, he is none of His?

19. The Fifth Test your Lordilhip quotes, as defaribing a Miraculou Gift of the Spirit, is 1 Car. 14, 15 To prove which, you comment on the 8th Chapter to the Roman, particularly the 26th Verle : And here again it is itadi. " That the Interpretation affigird, is continued by feveral of the molt eminent Factor, more effectivily the Great. I cannot find St. Jereen to have writ one Line epon he Place. And it is obvious, that St. Cargolythem (appoles, the whole Context from the 17th to the sight Verie, to relate to all Christians in all Ages. How this can be faid to "confirm the interpretation affind," I cannot conjecture. Nay, it is remarkable, find the exponds the former Nay, it is remarkable, that he exponds the former Nay it is remarkable, that he exponds the former Arat of the afolt him. Then free the does not confirm, has overshow " the Interpretation before affiguad." But in the Middle of the Verie he benchs off, "cold exponds the later Part, as deferibing one of the Mitsaulau

20. The Third Father by whom it is fild this Interpretation is confirm d is Orizon. The first Passage of his, which relates to Rom. viii. 26. runs thus : (Vol. I. p. 103)

And he that fearcheth the Hearts knoweth what is the Mind of the Spirit ; because be maketb Intercession for the Saints, according to the Will of GOD. The Spirit which crieth Abba, Father, in the Hearts of the Saints, knowing well our Groanings in this Tabernacle, maketh Intercellion for us to GOD, with Groanings which cannot be utter'd. To the fame Effect is that Scripture, I Cor. xiv. 115. I will pray with the Spirit, I will pray with the Understanding alfo. For our Understanding (or Mind à we) cannot pray, if the Spirit do not pray before it, and the Understanding, as it were, liften to it." Again (Vol. II. p. 146.) " I would know, how the Saints cry to Gon without a Voice. The Apoffle thews, GOD bath fent forth the Spirit of his Son into our Hearts, crying, Abba, Father ! And he adds, The Spirit it/elf maketh Interceffion for us, with Groanings which cannot & utter'd. And again, He that fearcheth the Hearts, knoweth what is the Mind of the Spirit, becaufe be maketh Interceffion for the Saints, according to the Will of GOD. Thus therefore, the Spirit making Interceffion for us with Gon, the Cry of the Saints is heard without a Voice."

Once more in his Homily on Jofbua, (Vol. II. 419.)

"I jetus, our Lord, doth not forfake us; but althöv when we would pray, our konus not valuet to pray for ar we ought, yet the Spirit itfelf maketh Intercoffue for an waith Granning which cannot be atthr d. Now the Lord is that Spirit : This our Prayers, and offers them to Gob with Groanings which we cannot express in Work."

I believe all Rational Men will observe from hence, That Origen is 6 far from confirming; that he quite overtums your Lordhip's Interpretation of the 16th as well as the 26th Verfe of this Chapter : Seeing, in his Jadgment, both that Toffmann of the Spirit, and this Pracer belong to all Chriftman in all Aces.

21. The Sixth Scripture which your Lordfhip has undertaken to fhew, " relates only to the Apofiolical Times,"

Times," is a Cor. ii. Ver. 4, 5. And " this Inter-pretation alfo, (it is faid) is confirm'd by the Authority of Chryfoltom, Origen, and other ancient Writers." (p. 33.) With those other " Antient Writers" I have no concern yet, St. Cbryfoftom fo far confirms this Interpretation, as to explain that whole Phrafe, the Demonstration of the Spirit and of Power, of " the Power of the Spirit flewn by Miracles." But he favs not one Word, of any " Proof of the Chriftian Religion, arifing from the Types and Prophecies of the Old Teftament."

Origen has thefe Words (Vol. I. p. 321.)

" Our Word has a certain peculiar Demonstration, more Divine than the Grecian, Logical Demonstra-tion. This the Apostle terms, The Demonstration of the Spirit and of Power : Of the Spirit, becaufe of the Prophecies, fufficient to convince any one, effectially of the Things that relate to Chrift; of Power, becaufe of the Miraculous Powers, fome Footheps of which ftill remain."

Hence we may doubtlefs infer, That Origen judg'd this Text to relate, in its primary Senfe to the Apoltles : But can we thence infer, That he did not judge it to belong, in a lower Senfe, to all true Minifters of Chritt ?

Let us hear him fpeaking for himfelf in the fame Treatife (p. 377.)

" And my Speech and my Preaching were not with inticing Words of Man's Wildom, but in Demonstration of the Spirit and of Power : That your Faith fould not fland in the Wildom of Men, but in the Power of GOD. Those who hear the Word preached with Power, are themfelves filled with Power," (N. B. Not the Power of working Miracles) which they demonstrate both in their Difpolition, and in their Life, and in their firiving for the Trath unto Death. But fome, altho' they profess to believe, have not this Power of Gop in them, but are empty thereof."

(Did Ori, en then believe, that the Poswer mention'd in this Text, belong'd only to the Apoltolical Age ?) L. See

After obferving, That this is the very Paflage which your Lordhip mentions at the Clofe of the other (but does not cite] I defire every unprejudiced Perion to judge, whether Origen does not clearly determing. That the Power, fiptien of in this Text, is in fome mendure given to all True Minifers in all Ages?

22. The Laft Scripture which your Lordflip affirms ⁴⁴ to be peculiar to the Times of the Apoflles," is that in the first Epille of St. John, concerning the Unifien of the Holy One.

To confirm this Interpretation, we are referr'd to the Authority of Origen and Chryfoftom, on the Parallel Paffages in St. John's Gofpel," (p. 42.)

But it has appear'd, That both thefe Fathers fuppole thofe Paffages to belong to all Chrillians. And confequently their Authority (if thefe are Parallel Paffages) flands full against this Interpretation.

"Your Loridhip fubjoins, "I fhall here only add that of the Great Athenofas, who (in his Epidle to Sarfion) interprets The Unation from the Holy Oat, not merely of Divine Grace, but of the Extraordinary Gifs of the Holy Spirit."

Nay, it is enough, if he interprets it at all of Ordinary Grace, fuch as is common to all Christians.

And this your Lordfhip allows he does. But I cannot allow that he interprets it of any Thing ele. I cathot percive, That he interprets it at all, " of the Extraordinary Gifts of the Holy Spirit." His This Words are, "The Holy Spirit is call'd, and is The Unfilm and the Scal. For Jobs writes, The Amining subids by howe received of him, childred in you a unity and not that any Man found teach you, but as the Amining, his Spirit, be touchash you of chil'ange, Again, it is written in the Propher Jasob, The Spirit of the Lord is apar ms, becauft he hold amind me. "" He femdeb the Spirit of his Son into any Hearts, crying, Abba, Father. His Son in us, invoking the Exther, makes him to be call'd our Father. Certainly Gon cannot be call'd Their Father, who have not the Son in their Hearts."

Is it not easy to be observed here, t. That debending makes FAb = Tghimagy of the Spirit, common to all the Children of Gon : z. To object Enthuljum to any Perfon or Doctrine, is but a decent Method of begging the Quettion. It generally fipares the Objector the trouble of reafoning, and is a florter and cafer way of carrying his Caufe.

For inflance, I affert that "till a Man receiver the Hof Geld, he is without Goo in the World'; that he cannot know the Things of Goo, unlefs Goo recoul them auto him by his Spirit: Noo, non have even one hely or heavenly Temper, without the Lafrianizer of He Holy One." 29. I have now confidered the mod material Obpetions I know, which have been lately made sgainst the great Doctrine I teach. I have produced, to far as in me lay, the Strength of the Objections, and then antwered them, I hopes, in the Spirit of Medsfact. And now I truft it appears, that thefe Doctrines areno other than the Doctrines of Jefus Chrift: That they are all evidently constanted in the Wort of Goo, by which alone I defire to fland or fall, and that they are call evidently constanted in the Wort of Goo, by which alone I defire to fland or fall, and that they are fundamentily the fame with the Dochrize of the Church of England, of which I do, and ever did mode is more all a Member.

But there remains one Objection, which the' relating to the Head of Dockrine, yet is independent on all that went before. And that is, "You cannot agree in your Dockrines among yourdleys. One holds one Thing and one another. Mr. Whitefeld anathematizes Mr. Weit, and Mr. Weite mathematizes Mod. And yet each pretends to be led by the Holdy (Bohd, by the indlikels Spirit,")

I need not fly, how continually this has been urged, both i common Convertation and from the Prefs : [1 an grieved to add, and from the Palpit too ; for, if the Argament were good, it would overtaum the Bible.] Nor, how great Streis has been continually laid upon it: Whoever proposes it, ropropose it as Demonstration, and generally chaps his Wings, as being quite affured, it will admit of no Aniver.

And indeed I am in doubt, whether it does admit (I am fure, it does not require) any other Anfwer, than H that coarie one of the Countryman to the Romillo Champion, " Bellarmine, Thou lieft." For every Propolition contain'd herein, is grofly, fhamelefly falfe. 1. "You cannot agree in your Doctrines among yourfelves"—Who told you fo? All our Fundamental Doctrines, I have recited above. And in every one of these we do, and have agreed for several Years. In thefe, we hold one and the fame Thing. In fmaller Points, each of us thinks, and lets think. 2. "Mr. Whitefield anathematizes Mr. Wefley." Another fhamelefs Untruth. Let any one read what Mr. Whitefield wrote, even in the Heat of Controverly, and he will be convinced of the Contrary. 3. " And Mr. Welley anathematizes Mr. Whitefield." This is equally falle and fcandalous. I reverence Mr. Whitefield, both as a Child of Gop, and a True Minister of Jefus Chrift. 4. " And yet each pretends to be led by the Holy Ghoft, by the infallible Spirit of Gop." Not in our Private Opinions : Nor does either of us pretend to be any farther led by the Spirit of GoD, than every Chriftian muft pretend to be, unlefs he will deny the Bible. For only as many as are led by the Spirit of GOD, are the Sons of GOD. Therefore, if you do not pretend to be led by him too, yea, if it be not fo in fact, you are none of His.

And now, what is become of your Demonfiration? Leave it to the Car-Men and Porters, its jult Proprietors: To the zealous Apple-Women that cry after me in the Street, "This is he that rails at the Whole Duryful of Man." But let every one that pretends to Leaming or Reafon, he adhamed to mention it any more.

30. The Firld Inference, ealily deduced from what has bern find, is, " That we are not Fad/e Prophen." In one Senfe of the Word, we are not Prophers at all propher the transmission of the Word, we are not Prophers at all propher the transmission of prack in the Name of Goo. Now a Falle Propher in the Wild Goo, what is not for. But we dedare (as has been flewin at large) nothing elfe as the Wild Goo, but what is evidendly contained in his pritten Word, as explained by our own Charch. Therefore, and the propher for the Word, as explained by our own Charch. Therefore, and the set of the Word, as explained by our own Charch. Therefore, and the set of th fore, unless you can prove the Bible to be a Falle Book, you cannot poffibly prove us to be FalleProphets.

The Text which is generally cited on this Occafion, is Matthew vii. ver. 15. But how unhappily chofen ! In the preceding Chapters, our Lord had been de-feribing That Righteou/nefs which exceeds the Righteoufnefs of the Scribes and Pharifees, and without which we cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven : Even the Life of Gop in the Soul ; Holinefs of Heart, producing all Holinefs of Conversation. In this, He closes that Rule which fums up the Whole, with these folemn Words, Enter ye in at the Strait Gate : (fuch indeed is that of Universal Holines) For wide is the Gate, and broad is the Way that leadeth to Destruction. The Gate of Hell is wide as the whole Earth ; the Way of Unholinels is broad as the Great Deep. And many there be which go in thereat ; yea, and excuse themfelves in fo doing, Becaufe strait is the Gate and narrow is the Way that leadeth unto Life, and few there be that find it. It follows, Beware of Falle Prophets ; of those who speak as from Gon, what Gon hath not fpoken ; those who shew you any other Way to Life, than that which I have now thewn. So that the Falle Prophets, here spoken of, are those who point out any other Way to Heaven than this ; who teach Men to find a Wider Gate, a Broader Way, than that deferibed in the foregoing Chapters. But it has been abundantly fhewn, that we do not. Therefore (whatever we are befide) we are not Falle Prophets, Neither are we (as has been frequently and vehemently affirm'd) Deceivers of the People. If we teach the Truth as it is in Jefus, if we Speak as the Oracles of GOD, it follows, That we do not deceive those that hear, tho' they fhould believe whatever we fpeak. Let GOD be true and every Man a Liar : every Man that contradicts his Truth. But he will be justified in bis Saying, and clear uben be is judg'd.

One Thing more I infer, " That we are not Enthufiafts." This Accufation has been confider'd at large : And the main Arguments hitherto brought to fupport it, have been weighed in the Balance and found wanting : Particularly This, " That none but En-H thufiafts

32. I cannot conclude this Head without one obvious Remark. Suppose we really were Enthusiafts ; suppofe our Doctrines were falfe and unfupported either by Reafon, Scripture or Authority : Then, why hath not fome one, who is a Wife Man, and endued with Knowledge among you, attempted, at least, to thew us our Fault in Love and Meeknej: of Wijdom? Brethren, if ye have bitter Zeal in your Hearts, your Wijdom defiendeth not from above. The Wildom that is from above, is pure, peaceable, gentle, eafy to be intreated, full of Mercy or Pity. Does this Spirit appear in one Single Tract, of all those which have been published against us? Is there one Writer that has reproved us in Love? Bring it to a fingle Point. Love bopeth all Things. If you had loved us in any Degree, you would have boped, that GOD wou'd fome Time give us the Knowledge of his Truth. But where thall we find even this flender Instance of Love ? Has not every one who has wrote at all (I do not remember fo much as one Exception) treated us as Incorrigible ? Brethren, how is this? Why do ye labour to teach us an Evil Leffon against yourfelves? O may God never fuffer others to deal with you, as ye have deale with us !

VI. 1. Before I enter upon the Confideration of those Objections, which have been made to the Mawwr of our Preaching. I believe it may be fatisfactory to fome Readers if I relate how I began to preach in this Manner.

I was ordain d Descon in 1755, and Drich, in the Vers following. But it was many Year after this, before I was convinced of the Great Truthe above recited. During all that Time I was atterly ignorate of the Nature and Condition of $J_{ad}/f_{contine}$. Sometimes I contomoded it with Sanchikanican optimizing when I was in Georgie). At other Times I had come H_3 confused Notion about the Forgiveness of Sins: But then I took it for granted, the Time of this mult be, either the Hour of Death, or the Day of Judgment." I was equally ignorant of the Nature of Saving Faith ; apprchending it to mean no more, than a " Firm Affent to all the Propositions contain'd in the Old and New Teffament

2. As foon as, by the great Bleffing of Gon, I had a clearer View of these 'Things, 1 began to declare them to others also. I believ'd, and therefore I spake. Where-ever I was now defir'd to preach, Salvation by Faith was my only Theme. My constant Subjects were, Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou Balt be faved. Him bath GOD exalted to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give Repentance and Remiffion of Sins. Thefe I explain'd and inforced with all my Might. both in every Church where I was ask'd to preach, and occationally in the Religious Societies of London and Wellminster ; to fome or other of which I was continually prefs'd to go, by the Stewards or other Members of them.

Things were in this Pofture, when I was told, "I muft preach no more in this, and this, and another Church :" The Reafon was usually added without referve, " Becaufe you preach fuch Doctrine." So much the more those who cou'd not hear me there, flock'd together when I was at any of the Societies : where I looke more or lefs, tho' with much Inconvenience. to as many as the Room I was in would contain.

3. But after a Time, finding those Rooms could not contain a Tenth Part of the People that were earness to hear, I determin'd to do the fame Thing in England, which I had often done in a warmer Climate : Namely, when the Houfe would not contain the Congregation, to preach in the open Air. This I accordingly did, first at Brifol, where the Society-Rooms were exceeding fmall, and at Kingswood, where we had no Room at all ; afterwards in or near London.

And I cannot fay, I have ever feen a more awful Sight, than when on Role Green, or the Top of Hannam-Mount, fome Thousands of People were calmlysoin'd together in folemn waiting opon Gon, while " They

(79) " They flood and under open Air adored

The Gon who made both Air, Earth, Heaven and Sky."

And whether they were liftning to his Word, with Attention full as Night; or were liftning up their Voice in Prais(e, as the Sound of many Waters; many a Time have I been confirmined to fay in my Heare, Hew dreadful in this Place I Albie allo is no other than the Haufe of CODI . This is the Gate of Hammen I

Be pleafed to obferve. 1. That I was forbidden. as by a general Confent, to preach in any Church (tho? not by any judicial Sentence) " for preaching fuch Doctrine." This was the open, avowed Caufe : There was at that Time no other, either real or pretended : 2. That I had no Defire or Defign to preach in the open Air, till long after this Prohibition ; 3. That when I did, as it was no Matter of Choice, fo neither of Premeditation. There was no Scheme at all previoufly formed, which was to be supported thereby ; nor had I any other Endin view than this, to fave as many Souls as I could. 4. Field preaching was therefore a fudden Expedient, a thing fubmitted to, rather than chofen ; and therefore fubmitted to, becaufe I thought preaching even thus, better than not preaching at all : First, in regard to my own Soul, becaufe a Difpenfation of the Golbel being committed to me, I did not dare, Not to preach the Gofpel ; Secondly, in regard to the Souls of others. whom I every where faw, feeking Death in the Error of their Life.

4. But the Author of the Obfervations and of the Cafe of the Meshadik briefly Actack, more particularly in the Point of Field preaching. thinks Field-preaching work than not preaching at all, "because its illegal." Your Argument, in form, runs thus:

" That Preaching which is contrary to the Laws of the Land, is worfe than not preaching at all :

But Field preaching is contrary to the Laws of the Land;

Therefore, it is worfe than not preaching at all."

The first Proposition is not felf-evident, nor indeed, univerfally true. For the Preaching of all the primitive Christians was contrary to the whole Tenor of the Roward Roman Laws; the Worship of their Devil gods being ethablished by the Brongelt Laws then in being. Nor is it ever true, but on Supposition, that the Preaching in quefition is an indifferent Thing.

But waving this, I deny the fecond Proposition; I deny that Field-preaching is contrary to the Laws of our Land.

To prove which, you begin thus, "It does not appear, that any of the Preachers among the Metbadila, have qualified themfelves and the Places of their affembling, according to the Act of Toleration."

Indiver, 1. That Ad. grants Toleration to the who differ from it. Therefore we cannot have do not differ from it. Therefore we cannot make ale of that Ad. a, That Ad exempts Differences from Pandites conferent on their Breach of preceding Laws. But we are not conficious of Breaching any Laws at all. Therefore we need not make use for it.

In the next Section you fay, " They have broken thro' all these Provisions, in open Defance of Government: And have met not only in House, but in the Fields, notwithstanding the Statute (az Car. II. e. 1.) which forbids this by Nume."

I antiver, r. We do nothing in Defanie of Government. We revence Magnitates, as the Miniters of Goo. z. Altho' we have met in the Fidda, yet we do not conceive this State at a all affect us z. Not only, because that Ad points wholly at Difference; whereas we are Members of the effablished Charch is but allo because (they are your own World) is wan evidently insteaded to legate and and and a Mineras no Sedition, nor any the least Approach thereto, can with any Colour be laid to our Charge.

In your 3d Section you affirm, " Thus the Ad of Toleration infife cannot feedbe us in Reidspraching, from the Penalies of former Laws." We have no Defire it fhould ; as not apprehending ourfelves to be condemned by any former Laws whatever. Nor does what you add, " That the Adt of Toleration forbids any Affenbly of Perfons affecting from the Charch of England, to meet with the Doors locked," affect us at all ; because we do not affect from it.

5. In

5. In the Cafe of the Methodifts briefly flated, your full Oblevation is, " The Act of Toleration leaves them liable to the Penalties of feveral Statutes made againt unlawful Affemblies."

²I fuppofe then these feveral Statutes specify what those unla wind Affemblies are; and whether unlawful, as being condemned by previous Laws, or made unlawful by those Statutes.

And it full remains to be proved, that our Affemblies are unlawful, in one or other of these Senses.

You next observe, that, " the Different of all Denominations, qualify themselves according to the A& of Toleration : Otherwife, they are liable to the Penalies of all the Laws recited in this A&."

I and/wer, as before, all this dirikes wide. It relates wholly to "Perfons differing from the Church." Bat we are not the Men. We do not differit from the Church. Whoever affirms it, we put him to the Proof.

You go on, "One of those Laws to recited (viz. 22 Car. II. c. 1.) is that which forbids Field-preaching by Name; and was evidently intended, not only to /wppre/i, but alfo to prevent Sedition. As the Title of the Ad declares, and as the Preamble expression is previde further and more faced Remains equival it."

Was this then, in your own Judgment, the resident linearing of hold \mathcal{A}_2 , vix \mathcal{B}_1 proving Readins again Seminar 2 Does the very Title of the data detare this 4 and the Readents also expression in a Water balance then, with what Ingrenity or Cardor, with what falters and the readent of the data details and abadent of Turk or Reading, can any Man cite this Act against us 4 Whom you yourfelf no more fulpeet of a being to raise Sedition (1 append to your own Concisence in the Sight of Goa) than of a Defign to blow we the City of Leaden.

6. Hitherto therefore it hath not been made to appar, that Field peracting is contrary to any Law in being. However, "It is Dangeron." 'This you frongly infit on. "It may be attended with mitchie yous Confequences. It may give Advanages to the Enemies of the chibliched Gouernment. It is big with which is "Otherwarding. Scel. 1. and 41.)

With

With what Mifchief? Why, "evil-minded Men, by meeting together in the Fidda, under Pretenee of Reigion, may raife Rois and Tumults; or by meeting ferretly, may carry on private Cabals againft the State." (Gale of the Mathodilts, p. 2.)

⁴⁶ And if the Mathedip themfelves are a bounded and local ecopet, it is nothing to the Point in hand. For diloyal and feditious Perfons, may use fuch an Opportunity of getting togethere, in order to execute any private Defign Mr. Whitefield fiys, 30, 50 or Soco have attended his preaching at once. Now, 1. He cannot know one tenth Part of fuch a Congregation together and the second second second and being at the second secon

"With what Safety to the Publick thefe Fieldpreachings may be continued, let the World judge." (ibid. p. 2, 3, 4.)

May 1 fpeak without Offmee? I cannot think you are in enough. You do not mean what you jor, Do you believe, Mr. Whitefold had elgby Thanford (Herrer Andree, No more than you believe he had elgby Millions. Is not all this talk of Danger, mere Findle? Thorwn in purely an encodent invokine P You know Governments generally are fufpicions; effecially in Time in War: And therefore apply, as you hoppele, to their weak Sides in hopes, if polible, to deliver over the flereticks to the lecular Arm. However, I will anliver, as if you goole from your Heart. For I am in earnel; if you are not.

First, " The Franker cannot know a tenth Part of the Congregation." Let us come to the preview Since of Things. The larged Congregation that new atend the preaching of any Method,", are thick (Gon be mercified to mel) that attend mine. And cannot I know a tenth Part of one of the Congregation, either at Brifel, Kinglwood, Newcoffle or London P As finance as it may item, I generally know Yow Thinds of the Congregation in every Pince even on Saday Perening, and mine in ten of thoir who attend at mol other Times. 2. " All People may come and carry on what Didgas they will," Not 60, All Frida proving is town in the open Day. And where only ton Perion, to come to fuch an Alfembly with Arms, it would foon be inquired, with what Dogan they came. This is therefore, a, No "great Open they paint the Hands of feditions Perions to raile Dihurbances." And if ever any Difutbance has been raided, it was quite of another Kind.

The Publick then is entirely fafe, if it be in no other Danger than arifes from Field-preaching.

7. There is one other Sentence belonging to this Head, in the eighth Section of the Objervauits." "The religions Societies, you fay, in Londow and Wightwightey, for many Years path, have received no Difficuringement, but on the contrary have been contenuenced and incouraged both by the Bithops and Clergy," How is this? Have they then "qualified themselves and the Places of their affective thermore in the the objective of their affective the section of the Abido Jucket and the theory of the theory of the Abido Jucket and the Conditions of it?" I favo, are they son all " linkle to the Penalties of the feveral Scittures and before that Time appint Unlawfild Affendiver?

How can they elcape $\overset{\circ}{\sim}$ Have they "qualified themiddes for holding their feparate Affemblies, according to the Tenor of that Adi 4" Have then the feveral "Members thereof taken the Oaths to the Government?" And are the "Doors of the Places wherein they meet, always open at the Time of fach Meetnig?" I prefume, you know they are not and that senser " the Perform nor Places are fo qualified as that Ad directs."

How then come " the Billiops and Clergy, to comtance and encavarge? Unlawful Alfemblies ? If it be tidi, " They meet in a private, inoffenitive Way ?" that is nothing to the Point in Hand. If Holds Meeting are Unleargid in themfelves, all their findershipest will not make them Lawful. " O, but they belare with Modelty and Decency." Wery well, but the Lawf What is that to the Lawf There can be so fail Decience but this: They are not Differency im the Charley therefore it counts of an at the do not need the Act of Toleration. And their Meetings are not Seditious; Therefore the Statute against Seditious Meetings does not affect them.

The Application is obvious. If our Meetings are Illegal, fo are Theirs alfo. But if This Plea be Good (as doubtlefs it is) in the one Cafe, it is Good in the other alfo.

9. You propole another Objection to our Manner of Preaching, in the Second Part of the Objervation, The Subitance of it I will repeat, and answer as briefly as I can.

"" They run up and down from Place to Place, and from County to County" that is, Moy preach in forward Places. This is undoubtedly true. "" They draw after them condited Multitudes of People" that is, " Many count of bear them." This is true allo. " Bast they would do well to emember, Goo is not the Author of Confying or of Immit, but of Press." I all, in our largef Congregation. Unlefs at fome rare Times when sons of Belial mix therewith, on purpole to diluth the psecable Worthippers of Goo.

" But our Church has provided againft this presching up and down, in the Ordination of a Prieft, by expredsy limiting the Exercise of the Powers then confer'd upon him, to the Congregation where be shall be leavefully appointed thereastes."

I answer, i. Your Argument proves too much. If it he allow'd juit as you propole it, it proves, That no Prieth has Authority, either to preach or minifer the the Sacraments, in any other than his own Congregation.

2. Had the Powers confer²d been 6 Vinited when I was ordanird Prieft, my Ordination would have figui-field juit nothing. For I was not appointed to and Cargregation at all: But was ordain'd as a Member of that "College of Divines," (to our Statters experts it) founded to overturn all Herefies, and defend the Catholic Paint."

3. For many Years after I was ordain'd Priefl, this Limitation was never heard of. I heard not one Syllable of it, by Way of Objection, to my preaching up and down, in Oxford or London, or the Parts adjacent, in Glaueflerfine or Worceflerfine; in Laueflire, Institute or Lauenflire, Nor did the thrittett Difchilplinarian feruple (uffering me to exercise those Powers wherever I came.

4. And in fact, Is it not universally allow'd, That every Briek, as such, has a Power, in Virtue of his Ordination, either to presch or to administer he Bacraments, in any Congregation, wherever the Rector or Curate deires his Affithance? Does not every one then, fee through this thin Pretence?

10. "The Bilhops and Universities indeed have Power to grant Licences to Universitie. But the Church has provided in ibst Cabe. They are not to preach in any Church (Canon 50.) till they flew their Licence." The Church has well provided in that Cabe. But

The Church has well provided in that Cale. But what has Todar Cale to do with the Cale of Common Clergy-ment 2 Oaly fo much as to thew, how goodly the Canon has been abaied, as A Unique on particular : by muin Force, the Priett whom the Vicar himidif had appointed, from preaching, and to quote this Canon i which, as you plainly flaw, belongs to quite another Thing.

In the Note you add, "' Mr. Welly being said of by what Authonity he preached, replied, by the Authonity of Jelius Chrill, convey'd to me by the low Archhilmo of Generkney, when he laid his Hands upon me and faid, Take thou Authority to preach the Gopel. In this Reply he thought fit, for a plain Reason, to leave out viai latter Port of the Commitfon: for that would have threw his Reader, the R-Ariust and Limitation, under which the Exercile of the Power is granted." Nay, I did not fyries the latter Part of the Words, for a plaine Reason, because the Autor and the Words, for a plaine Reason, because the day of the Words, for a plainer Reason, because poshably if they had, I floud not have folken them, provably fir hey had, I floud not have folken them: It being my only Concern, to answer the Quedion proposed, in a few Words as I coud.

But before thole Words, which you suppose to imply fuch a Refiraint, as wou'd condemn all the Bishops and and Clergy in the Nation, were thole forken without any Referant or Limitation at all, which I suprehead to convey an Indelble Charafter, " Receive the Holy Ghoft, for the Office and Work of a Priet in the Lurch of Gon, now committed anto thek, by the Impolition of our Hands. Whole Sims thou doth forgive, they are forgiven, and whole Sims thou doth retain, they are retained. And be thou a faithful Diperier of the Word of Gon, and of hin Holy Starmments, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoft."

You proceed, "I nithe fime Journal he declares, That he look upon all the World as his Parih, and explain his Meaning as follows, "I in whatever Parameter and the second second second second the second bar, to declare unto all that are willing to hear, the Giad Tidings of Salvation. This is the Work which I know Goo hath called me to." Nameto hear, the Giad Tidings of Hands of the Perfoster; which direcks me how to obey that General Command, while we berev Time, it at us de Good ante all Man.

1. You object finiter, "" That the Malough do no toderes whe Rubrick before the Communiton Service; which directs, fo many as define to partake of the Holy Community, to lignify their Names to the Carate the Day before." What Carate defires they flouid 1 Whenever any Minifter will give but one Weel's Notice of this, 1 undertake, all that have any Relation to m, fall fignify their Names within the Time apointed.

You object allo, that they break thro' the twenty eighth Canon, which requires, " That if Strangers come often to any Church from other Parifles, they fhould be remitted to their own Churches, there to receive the Communion with their Neighbours."

But what if there be no Communion there? Then this Canon does not touch the Cafe, nor does any one break it, by coming to another Charch purely becaufe there is no Communion at his own.

As to your next Advice, " To have a greater Regard to the Rules and Orders of the Church," Learnit, for I now regard them, next to the Word of Goo. And as to your laft, "To renounce Communion with the Church," (.87)

Church," I dare not. Nay, but let them thruft us out. We will not leave the Ship: If you caft us out of it, then our Lord will take us up.

12. To the fame Head may be refered the Objection fome time urged, by a friendly and candid Man, viz. "That it was unlawfal to ufe extemporary Prayer, becaule there was a Cahon againft it."

It was not quite clear to me, that the Canon he cited was againft extemporary Prayer. But fuppoing it were, my plain Aniwer would be, " That Canon I dare not obey : Becaufe the Law of Man binds only fo far, as it's confiltent with the Word of Gop."

The fame Perfon objected, my not obeying the Bihopo and Governors of the Church. I antiver, I antiver, I dear Confeience. So that there is no juit Ground for that Charge, that Ladjöjć either the Kales, or the Governors of the Church. I obey them in all things where I do not apprehend there is fome particular law of to no the contravy. I seen in that Cafe I have for no the contravy. I seen in that Cafe I inoffentively as poffile: And am ready to fubmit to my Penalty, which can by Law be infilted upon me. Would to Goo every Miniter and Member of the Church, were here halogether al am ?

VII. 1. I have confidered the chief Objections that have have been urged against the Dokymen I tach. The main Arguments brought against this Manner of Tauking, have been confidered allo. It remains, too summe the molt current Objections, concerning the BF221 of this Teaching. Many affirm, "That it does abundance of Hart 3

Many affirm, "That it does abundance of Hurt 3 that it has had very bad Effects ; infomuch that if any Good at all has been done, yet it bears no Proportion to the Evil."

But come to Particulars, "First then, you are Diffurbers of the publick Peace."

What, do we either teach or raife Sedition? Do we peak Evil of the Ruler of our People? Or do we flir them up againft any of thole that are put in authority under him? Do we directly or indirectly promote I a Faction, Mutiny or Rebellion? I have not found any Man in his Senfes yet, that would affirm this.

" Bat it is plain, Peace is broke and Diffurbances do arife, in confequence of your Preaching." I grant it. But what would you infer ? Have you never read the Bible ? Have you not read, that the Prince of Peace himfelf was, in this Senfe, a Difturber of the public Peace ? When he came into Jerufalem (Matt. xxi. 10.) all the City was moved, (isingh) thaken as with an Earthquake. And the Diffurbance arofe higher and higher, till the aubole Multitude cried out together, Away with him, away with him ; crucify him, crucify bin ; and Pilate gave Sentence, it fould be done. Such another Diffurber of the publick Peace, was that Stethen, even from the Time he began difputing with the Libertines and Cyrenians, till the People Ropped their Ears, and ran upon him with one Accord, and caft him out of the City and floned him. Such Diffurbers of the Peace were all those Ringleaders of the Sect of the Nozarenes, (commonly called Apofiles) who wherever they came, turned the World upfide down. And above ... all the reft, that Paul of Tarfus, who occasioned fo much Difturbance at Damafcus, (Acts ix.) at Antioch of Pifidia (c. xiii.) at Iconium (c. xiv.) at Lyfra (v. 19) at Philippi (c. xvi.) at Theffalonica (c. xvii.) and particularly at Epbefus. The Confequence of his preaching there was, That the whole City was filled with Confusion. And they all ran together with one Accord. fome crying one Thing, fome another : Inafmuch as the greater Part of them know not wherefore they were come together.

a. And can we excel it to be any otherwife serve? Ather what are preach it the Gofpel of Peace, yet if you will violently and illegally hinder our Peaching, muft not thin create Diffurbance? But obferve, the Diffurbance begins on year Part. All is Peace, et II you arisi te tha Diffurbance. And then you vey, modelify impute it to as, and hay your even Riot at are Door!

But of all this, our Lord had told us before. Think not that I am come to find Peace upon Earth: That this will be the immediate Effect, wherever my Goffel Gafpel is preached with Power. I am not come to feed Paur, but a Socord: This (to far as the Wildom of Goo permits, by whom the Hairs of your Head are all numbred) will be the first Confequence of my coming, whenever my Word turns Sinners from Darkneigh to Light, from the Power of Satan unto Gon.

I would with all you who fee this Scriptare fulfilled, by Diffurbance following the Freaching the Gofpel, to remember the Behaviour of that with Maglitate at Bybyia on the Bike Occafion. He did not hy the Difinithme to the Prencher's Charge, but keeksned to the whittade and fullik y Man of Epichian - T cought to be quiet, and to do nothing reglity. 2. " But you create Divisions in private Families." Accidentally, we do. For inflance, fuppofe an entire Family to have the Form but not the Power of Godlinefs ; or to have neither the Form nor the Power ; in either Cafe, they may in fome Sort agree together. But fuppofe, when thefe hear the plain Word of Gop, one or two of them are convinced, " This is the Truth. And I have been all this Time in the broad Way that leadeth to Deftruction :" Thefe then will begin to mourn after Gop ; while the reft remain as they were. Will they not therefore of confequence divide, and form themfelves into feparate Parties ? Muft it not be fo, in the very Nature of Things? And how exactly does this agree with the Words of our Lord? Suppole ye that I came to fart Peace upon Earth? I tell you nay: but rather Division: For from henceforth there shall be five divided in one House, three against two, and two against three. The Father fall be divided againft the Son, and the Son againft the Father : The Mother against her Daughter, and the Daughter against the Mether ; the Mother in law against the

the Daughter in law and the Daughter in law, againfi the Morher in law. (Luke xii, 51, 52, 53.) and the Foes of a Man, shall be they of his own Houshold. (Matt.x. -§6.)

Thus it was from the very Beginning. For is it to be fuppoled, that a Heatber Parent, would long ensure a Chriftian Child 1 Or that a Heatber Huhad would agree with a Chriftian Wite 1 Unles either the believing Huhand pervaled on the Wite to renounce here Way of worthpring Goo: At leaft, unlefs the would obey this in going no more to thole Sectitis or Conventilele, (Transia) as they termed the Chriftian Alfemblies.

4. Do you think now, I have an Eye to your Cafe ? Doubtlefs I have ; for I do not fight as one that beateth the Air. "Why have not I a Right to hinder my own Wife or Child, from going to a Conventicle ? And is it not the Daty of Wives to obey their Hufbands? And of Children to obey their Parents ?" Only fet the Cafe feventeen hundred Years back, and your own Confcience gives you the Anfwer. What would St. Paul have faid to one whole Hulband forbad her, to follow this Way any more? What Direction would our Saviour have given to him whole Father enjoined him, not to hear the Gofpel ? His Wolds are extant ftill, He that loweth Father on Mother more than me, is not worthy of me. And he that loveth Son or Daughter more than me. is not wonthy of me. (Matt. x. 37, 38.) Nay more, If any Man corneth to me, and bateth not (in comparison of me) his Father and Mother and Wife and Children, yea and his own Life, he cannot be my Difciple. (Luke xiv. 26.)

"O, but this is not a parallel Cafe. For they were Mankow: but I am a Conjins." A Christian I Are you for Do you underland the Word? Do you know what a Christiani it if you are a Christian, you have the Mind that wai in Christ and you for valk as he also walked. Not an et Holy as he is it holy both in Heart, and in all manner of Convertision. Hare you then the Mind that was in Christ it And do you walk see Christ walked I Are you inwardly did outwardly Heart Phate. Holy ? I far, not even ortwardly. No ; you live in known Sin. Alas ! How then are you a Chrillian ? What a Raifer, a Chrillian ? A Commos/kevere, a Chrillian ? A Sabath breaker, a Chrillian ? A Drumkard or Whoremogray. a Chrillian ! 5. "But you are not one of thefe. You fear Gob, and labour to have a Confeience void of Offence. And it is from a Principle of Confcience, that you reftrain your Wife or Children from hearing falfe Dodrine." But how do you know it is falle Doctrine ? Have you heard? for yourfelf ? Or, if you have not heard, have you carefully read what we have occafionally answered for ourfelves ? A Man of Confcience cannot condemn any one unheard. This is not Common Humanity. Nor will he refrain from hearing what may be the Truth, for no better Reafon than I car of his Reputation. Pray obferve. I do not fay, every Man (or any Man) is obliged in Confcience to hear us. But I do fay, every Man in England witto condemns us, is obliged to hear us first. This is only common Justice, fach as is not denied to a Thief or a Murderer. Take your choice therefore. Either hear us, or condemn us not. Either fpeak nothing at all, or hear before you fpeak, But

But (inpofe yon have both read and heard mere than you loked? did you read and hear fairly? Was not you loaden with Prejudice? Did you not read or hear, expeding as Gost j penhaps defining to find Rail? If fo, what wonder you judge as you do? What a poor Mock-trail is this? You had decided the Caule in you won Bread, before you heard one Word of the Evidence. And thil do you talk of acting out of Confement? Yea. Conditione with of Officine?

We will par the Cale father yet. Suppole your Centure was jud, and this was achially falle Dostrine. Still every one mult give an Account of himleff to Goo : and you cannot free the Conference of any one. You cannot rempt a mother, to fee as you fee. You angight not to attempt it. Restfor and Perfusion are the only Waspons you ought to ule, even toward your own Wife and Children. Nay, and it is imposfible to faeres them into Conviction, or to beat even Truth into their Head. You may defrey them, is on this way, but cannot consure them. Remember what our own Poet has faid.

" By Force Beafs act and are by Force reftrained ; The human Mind by gentle Means is gain'd. Thou canft not take, what I refufe to yield : Nor reap the Harveft, the thou ipoils the Field."

6. Every reafonable Man is convinced of this. And perhaps you do not concern youriell for much about the Dofrine, but the Michiel that is done. Wineffes, without ever going thro' my Hands at all. And then likewife all poffible Regard is had, to the Circumlances of thofe who contribute any thing. And they are told over and over, if there be a willing Mind, it is accepted according to thot a Man bath.

But where are all thefe Families that have been brought to Beggary 1 How is it, hat none of them is forthcoming ? Are they all, our of Yown ? Then indeed 1 am in no Danger of clearing myfelf from their Indictmont. It is the cafielt thing of a thoutand, for one the Neucosfle to fay, that I have beggard this and all his Kindred. If one of the long-bearded Men on $7m^2$ Fieldge, were to fay to just it now. I could not readily confute him. Bat why will you not bring a few of thefe to tell me fo to my Face? I have not found one that would do this yet. They pray, you would have then excued.

I remember a Man coming to me with a deleti-Contenance, pating hindle into may lamentable. Poilures, gaping is wide as he could, and pointing to his Mouth, as who would fay, "he could not fpeak." I enquired of his Companion, what was the matter? And was informed, "he had fallen into the Hands of the \mathcal{T}_{MC} , who had ufed him in a brubarous Manner, and cut out his Tongue by the Roots." I felicited, How is it that I could to readily believe that Tale ? The Anfwer was eafy, "Becaule it was told of a Tack. My Friend, take Knowledge of your own Cafe. If you had not find took me for a Tack, or Gomething equally bid, you could not fo readily, have believed hat Tale !

 γ , "• But can it be, that there is no ground at all free Report, which is in every ones Mouth ?1 will finnply real you, all the Ground which I can conceive. I believe many of thofe who attend on my Minitry, have lefs of this World's Goods than they had before, or at leaft, might have had, if they did not attend it. This Faelt I allow ; and it may be early accounted for, in one or other of the following Ways. Fird, - Firth, I frequently prefich on fuch Texts as thele: Howing Eod and Rymert, let us be content berewith. They would also and Rymert, let us be content berewith. They would also be the start of the start of the start Same, and many fields and berefit Lafly, would do the start, and many spent Barth, where the Ref. and Math darb corrupt, and where Thiever break three and fact, Rul ley up for yourfolds attractions, there and fact, Rul ley up for yourfolds attractions, where wither Ref. and Math darb corrupt, and woher Thiever do not break three and lead.

Now should any of those who are labouring by all possible Means, is far ys fragine upon Earlo, fait hefe Words, they would not inlarge their Defire at Hall is but be vorter would finds things at their bad. They then probably might not heap up for much for their Heirs, as otherwise they would have done. Their Weins, as otherwise they would have done to here would therefore bace k/r than if they had not heard mr : Becaufe they would graph at d_{2} .

Secondly, wherever the Golpel takes effect, the Fast of a Mm will be toley of kis own Houghold. By this Means then fome who hear and receive it with Joy, will be poorer than they were before. Their Domettic Foes will, in many Cafes, hinder, embroil, and diluch the Courie of their Affins. And their Relations, who affilted them before, or promified at least filtance, analy they wall be adoined by them. Perhaps the second second second second by the second takes of the second second second second second restores and the second second second second second wall be possibly with the adoing to the Merg and they call thered, they areas, it of the Merg walled they call thered, they areas it of the Merg and they call thered, they areas and the second second World's Goods than they had in Times path, either them on whom they depend. Thirdly, It is written, that toley eaks received with from them on whom they depend.

Introly, It is written, that thele wole received are the Mark of the Bach, either an their Fore-facil, or in their Right-Hand, either openly or feeredly, were not permitted to four of fall on more. Now whatever the Myllengy contained herein may be. I apprechand the Myllengy contained herein may be. I apprechand the Myllengy contained the either is forcedly or openly our tany to Julice, Mercy of Truth. And certain in the the Time is well nigh come, when those who have not this Mark, can neither buy nor fell, can fcarce follow any Profession, fo as to gain a Subfistance thereby. Therefore, many of those who attend on my Ministry, are by this Means poorer than before. They will not receive the Mark of the Beaft, either on their Forehead or in their Hand : Or if they had received it before, they rid themfelves of it as foon as poffible. Some cannot follow their former Way of Life at all ; (as Pawnbrokers, Smugglers, Buyers or Sellers of Uncuftom'd Goods.) Others cannot follow it as they did before. For they cannot opprefs, cheat or defraud their Neighbour : They cannot lie, or fay what they do not mean ; they must now fpeak the Truth from their Heart. On all these Accounts, they bave lefs of this World's Goods; becaufe they gain lefs than they did before.

Fourthy, 4ll that will live gold in Chrift Jogia food logic preferation: 1ft in no other Way, yet at least in this, that Man will by Revilling poplear than, and Jog all Manner of Evol agoing these folls, for bit Sole. One unavoidable Effect of this will be, that Men whole Solidance depends on their daily Labour, will be often in Want, for few will care to employ did employ them before, perhaps for many Years, will employ them no more ; 16 that hereby fume may indeed be Provapit to Beggary.

8. What does this toold year ? Are year one of thole, "who will have nothing to do with thole feandalous Werehest?" For hars you will fay, "And who can blass me for it: May I not employ who all plack?" We will weight this. You employ d. R. for feveral Year. By your own Account, he was an honself, diligner Man. You had no Objection to him but his fillowing skill Work. For this Reafon you turn him off. In a finet Time, having spent his little All, and having to Supply, he wants fillered. So does his Panilty to as well as himfelf. Before he can get into other Belinefs to procure it, hard you and for one fillered.

"This is not an Imaginary Scene. I have known the Cafe : tho' too late to remedy it.

"And what then?" Why then you are a Murderer. O Earth, cover mit thou his Blood? No, it doth not. The Gry there f has be neared into the Eart of the Lord(GOD of Sabhasth. And Gon requireth it at your Hands: and will require it in an Hour when you think not. For you have as effectually murder'd that Man, as if you had fabbid him to the Heart.

It is not I then who ruin and flarve that family : It is you ; you who call yourfelf a Protegiant! You who cry out againd the Profending Spirit of the Paapilit! Ye Fools and blind! What are ye better than they? Why, Educad Boarse would have fareat the Hereticks in Prifer. Whereas you flarve them in their sown Houfe.

And all this Time you talk of *Libery of Confei*ence ? Ves, Liberty for fach a Confeience as your own: A Conficience pay Feiling; (for fure is had fome once) a Conficience fair's estite a best Iron. Liberty to ferve the Devil, according to your poor, harden'd Confeience, you allow; Bat not Liberty to ferve Gon.

Nay, and what Marvel? Whofoever thon art that readent this, and fields in thy Heart a Real Defice to ferve Gong, I want thee, expect no Liberty for thy Genfeincer, from him that hat no Confeience at all. All Ungody, Unthankful, Unholy Men; all Villans of whatever Denomination, will have Liberty to worthy foco an Spirit and in Treth, to practife pure and and field Religion (unlefs the Lord fload work a new Thing in the Earth) from any but thofe who themfileves low and ferve Gons.

9. "However, 'tis plain, you make Men Idle. And this tends to beggar their Families." This Objection having been continually urg'd for fome Years, I will trace it from the Foundation.

Two or three Years after my Return from America, one Captuin Robert Williams of Briftol, made Afidavi before the (hen) Mayor of the City, That "it was a common Report in Georgia, Mr. Welley took People off from their Work and made them idle, by preaching fo much."

The Facl flood thus: At my first coming to Savanmal, the Generality of the People role at Seven or Eight in the Morning. And that Part of them who were accultom'd to work, ulually work'd till Six in the Evening. A few of them fonetimes work'd till Sevel i, which is the Time of Sun-Set there at Midfummer.

I immediately began reading Prayers and expounding the Second Leffon, both in the Morning and Evening. The Morning Service began at Five, and ended at, or before Six : The Evening Service began at Seven.

Now fuppoing all the Grown Perfons in the Town, had been prefent every Morning and Evening, would this have made them Idle? Would they hereby have had lefs, or confiderably more time for subvising ?

to. The fame Rule 1 follow now, both at Landon, Briffed and Newcafile upon Tyme : concluding the Service at every Place, Winter and Summer, before Six in the Morning: and not ordinarily beginning to preach, sill near Seven in the Evening.

Now do you, who make this Objection, work longer, throughout the Year, than from Six to Six ? Do you defire, that the Generality of People fhou'd ? Or, can you count them Idle, that work fo long ?

Some Few are indeed accuftom'd to work longer. Thefe I advife, not to come on Week-Days. And it is apparent, that they take this Advice, unless on tome rare and extraordinary Occafion.

But I hope, none of yea who turn them out of their Employment, have the Confidence to talk of my making them idle! Do you (as the homely Phrafe ii) cry wh --- farl ? I admire year Cunning ; but not your Modelly.

So far am I from either caufing or encouraging Idlenes, that an idle Perfon, known to be fach, is not fuffer'd to remain in any of our Societies; we drive him out, as we wou'd a Thief or a Murderer. To flew all pofible Diligence," (as well as Fregativ) (98) is one of our flanding Rules: And one, concerning the Obfervance of which, we continually make the fricted: Enougy.

11. "But you drive them out of their Senfes. You make them mad." Nay, then they are lide with a Vengeance. This Objection therefore being of the utmolt Importance, deferves our deepelt Confideration.

And firft, I grant, it is my earneft Defire to drive all the World, into what you probably call Mainds: (I mean, Inward Religion) To make them jult as Mad, as Paul was when he was to accounted by Fefur.

The counting all Thing: on Earth but Dang and Dode, fo use may win Onlift it the transpling under Foot-all the Pleafares of the World, the feeding to Treafare but in Heaven, it the having no Defixe of the Praifs of Men, a Good Chandler, a fair Reputation, the giving Goo Thanks when Men reviel us, and perfecute us, and fay all manner of Evil againft us falley : the giving Goo Thanks when our Father and Mother fortifice us, when we have neither Food to cat, nor Raiment to put on, nor a Fried but what fhoots out bitter Words, nor a Prace where to lay our Head : This is fober, rational Religion: The genuine Fruit, not of a ditemper? Brain, not of a field in factly I magniton, but of the Power of Goo in the Hears, of victorious Low, and of a jourd Mad.

 I grant, Secondly, It is my Endeavour to drive all I can, into what you may term another Species of Madm(f), which is usually preparatory to this, and which I term Repartment or Consultion.

I cannot defcribe this better than a Writer of our own has done. I will therefore transcribe his Words.

"When Men [do] in themitleys the hary Burler of Sin, fee Damaton to be the Revard of it, and behold with the Eye of their Mind the Horor of Helly they transle, they galace and are inwardly touched with Sorrowinistic of Heirr, and cannot but excert themfelves, and open their Grief unto Almight Goo, and call unto him for Mercy. This being done foroutly, their Mind is to occupied, parily with Sorrow " and Heavine(, party with an earnefl Defire to be delivered from this Danger of Hell and Dammenion, that all Defire of Meat and Drink is hid apair, and Loathfomenfa, ior, Loathing! of all workly! Things and Pienture cometh in place. So that nothing then likesh them, more than to weep, to lament, to more, and both with. Words and Behaviour of Body to flow them follows wears of Like."

Now what if your Wife, or Daughter, or Acquaittance, after having one of the Field-preachers, from, come and tell you, that they fore Dramation before them, and before with the set of bein Main the Harrer of Hill? What if they froud tremble and gualty and be, to taken up partly much Serress and Hersinel, partly with an everyth Defore to be defaured from this Danger of Hell on Dramation, as to wave, to Leaner, te mean, and bein with Wordt and Behaviane to flewa beneform every of Life. Word you Grouple to fay, that they were flow Mad? That thefe Fellows had driven thom or of this Sector and the whatever Writer it was, that table of the flow flow of the driven the flow flow of the sector.

You have overheat yourfelf now to fone perpote. Their are the very Word of our own Church, You may read them, if you are fo inclined, in the full Parot the Horair, an Editing. And confequently, what you have peremptorily determind it to be more Lanage at Diffraction, is that Representes and Diff, which, in the judgment both of the Church and of St. Park, is more the it restant of.

12. I grant, Thirdly, That E-transmisson Groums fames have arended this Courding in flower Inflatce. A particular Account of their I have frequently green. While the Word of Goo was preached, forme Perform have dropp'd down as dead; forme have berait were, in francy Couvilions, forme roard aloud, they not with an articulate Voice; and others fpoke the Anguith of their Soula-

This, I fuppole, you believe to be Perfect Madnefs. But it is eafly accounted for, either on Principles of Reafon or Scripture. First, on Principles of Reafon. For how eafy is it to toppole, that a strong, lively and fulden Apprehention of the Heinodicti of Sin, the Wrath of Goop, and the bitter Pains of External Death, hou'd affect the Body as well as the Soul, during the Prieton Laws of Viral Union ; hou'd interrupt or olimb the ordinary Circulations, and put Nature out of its three funding, it he profiles for the Mind to be affected, in the viral for the Mind to be affected, in the Viral For the Mind to be af-

It is likewite early to account for thefe Things, on Principles O'Scripture. For when we take a View of them in this Light, we are to add to the Confideration of Nataral Caulos, the Agency of thole Spirits who full excel in Strength, and as far as they have leave from Gop., will not fail to tormet whom they cannot defity; to tor thole that are coming to Cript, A. It is also remarkable, that there is plain they cannot defity is to tor thole that are coming to Cript, A. It is also remarkable, that there is plain they cannot defity is to tor thole that are coming to wild/or attended with thefe to be Madwide, with out giving up both Reston and Scripture. "A. It grant, Fourthly, That Touches of Extrava-

14. I grant, Fourthly, That Touches of Extravagence, bordering on Mathenet, may founctime attend severe Conviction. And this also is early to be accounted for, by the prefent Laws of the Animal Qeconomy. For we know, Fear or Grief, from a Temporal Caule, may occation a Fever and thereby a Detrium.

The input finite them that forme, while under fromg Imprefilms of Goro, thould for a Seafon forget almost 41 Hring elfe, and feare be able to ansiver a Common Quettion: "That forme thou'd finity they fee the Hames Or that others, for a Space, thou'd be grind, like Cain, subspaces meteric me will flay me." All thefe, and whatever file common Hericks may formisme secompany this Coavition, are easily known, from the Natural Difference of Maches, were it only by this (101) one Circumflance, that whenever the Perfon convinced, tafles the pardoning Love of Gop, they all vanifh away in a Moment.

Laftly, I have feen one Inflance (I pray Goo I may fee no more fuch !) of Real, Lafting Madnefs.

Two or Three Years fince, I took one with me to Briftol, who was under deep Convictions ; but of as found an Understanding in all Refpects, as ever he had been in his Life. I went a short journey, and when I came to Briftol again, found him really difracted. I enquired particularly, at what Time and Place, and in what Manner this Diforder began ? And I believe there are, at leaft, Threefcore Witneffes, alive, and ready to tellify what follows. When I went from Briflol, he contracted an Acquaintance with fome Perfons, who were not of the fame Judgment with me. He was foon prejudiced against me : Quickly after, when our Society were met together in Kingswood-Houfe, he began a vehement Invective both against my Perfon and Doctrines. In the Midst of this, he was flruck Raving Mad. And to he continued till his Friends put him into Bedlam : and probably, laid bis Madnefs too to my charge.

15. I fear, there may also be fome Inflances of Real Madnefs, proceeding from a different Caufe.

Suppore, for Infance, a Perfon, hearing me, is frongly conviced, that a line cannot enter into the Kingkom of Heaven. He comes home, and relates this to he Perents or Priends, and appears to be very unearly. Theie Good Christians are dilutived at this, and adriatid he is intaining Mad too. They are refolved, he fluid never hear any of thole Pellows more: and keep to it in foice of all his Interacties. They will confine him, when at home, to be alone, for fear will confinain him, at least by repeated Importanities, will confinain him, at least by repeated Importanities, or do again the very Thing, for which he was convinced the Wrath of Gon cometh upon the Children of Diffosfeince. What is the Even of this 5 continues the Spirit of Goo is specified and departs from him. Now you have carried the Point. The Man is eafy as ever, and fars on without any Remorfe. But in other Influnces, where those Convictions fink deep, and the Arrows of the Almighty fick fait is the Soul, you will drive that Ferfon into real fettled Madnech, before you "a quench the Spirit of Goo. I am Afriai, here have been ieveral Influence of this. You have forced the Man's Conticence, eill he is fark mad. But then, pray do not impute that Madneft to me. Had you left him to my Dirichton, or rather to the Direction of the Spirit of Goo, he would have been filed with Love and a found Mind. But you have have brought it to a fair Conching 1

16. How frequent this Cafe may be, I know not. But doubled mott of those who make this Clickion, of our driving Men mud, have never met with fuch an Ulfanser in their Lives. The common Cry is occafon-ed, either hy those who are ensuined of Sin, or thoig who are investigated of Sin, or thoigh the sing and the sing this, is no fure Foot of his being made. 17. And it mult be owned, a Confinement of fuch a fort, it as fit to confe as to care Diffraction. For what Scene of Diffres is to be compared to it? To be feparated at once from all who are near and dear to you; to be cut off from all reasonable Convertation, to be (reluded) fedulated from all Butherly, from all Reading, from every innocent Entertainment of the Mind, which is left to prey wholly upon itidif, and Day and Night to pore over your Minfortune: : to be flut up Day by Day in a gloony Cell, with only the Walls to employ your keavy Eyes, in the middl either of melancholly Silence, or horrid Cries, Groans and Laughter inturnist: To be forced by the main Strength of thole.

" Who laugh at Human Nature and Compafion," to take Drenches of naufeous, perhaps northing Medicines, which yoa know you have no need of now, but know not how foon you may, pollibly by the Operation of their every Drugs on a weak or tender Conflitution: Here is Diffield 1 to is an allonihing Thing, a Signal Proof of the Hower of Goo, if any Creature who has his Senfes when that Confinement begins, does not lofe them, before it is at an Bud 1

How mult it, beighten the Diffred, if fuch a poor Wretch, being deeply convinced of Sin, and growing worfe and worfe (as he probably will, feeng there as his Cafe requires) be foor placed among ibis heurablet. I can Imagination littlef pant that comes to all "the "Hore were were of the state of the state of the state mity, fhould happen to with that Hole Tale to the agree the large thirt of the state of the state he gives the large or with that Hole Tale to or if he gives the large or thirt that Hole Tale to or if he gives the large or thirt that Hole Tale to or the gives the large or the state will be and he fay, how well any of thefe will talk in their lard here yab, how well any of the the will kin their lard here the state of the state to be well concern hindef no more about it, but leave the Wenty to wait for Reflin the Grave I

I have endeavoared to finave, Finl, That the Deriving I teach are no other than the great Truths of the Goffel. as. That tho I reach item, not as I would, but as I com, yet it is in a Manar not contrary to Law: And Thirdly, That the Effects of thus Preaching the Goffel, have not been fich as was weakly or wickedly reported : Thofe Re-DOIS ports being more Artifices of the Devil, to hinder the Work of Goo.
