DARDA DEDICATION — DR. MELVIN WELCH

The 1988 DARDA staff was proud to dedicate this book to Dr. Melvin Welch. Dr. Welch has been with Trevecca for a number of years. He went to Trevecca as a student and then came back to serve as Director of Alumni Services, Director of Graduate Studies, and currently serves as Director of Admissions.

Dr. Welch is married to Joyce and they have a son, Todd, who is currently a junior at Trevecca and serves as manager of the Trevecca Trojan Basketball Team. Dr. and Mrs. Welch can usually be seen supporting the Trojans and their son at most home games. But, in addition to this, they also have a wedding decorating service. Dr. and Mrs. Welch have aided many Trevecca students in the planning and preparation of their weddings. Both have an incredible flair for interior decorating and are probably most remembered for their annual Christmas Trees that exist in every room in their house during the yuletide season.

Dr. Welch is greatly respected on the campus of TNC. Dr. Welch is much more than just the Director of Admissions. He can always be found lending support and guidance to the three Public Relations groups, the Admissions Counselors, and to the S.G.A.

He has also been especially supportive of the 1988 DARDA. So much so that he moved out of his office for an entire day this summer to allow us to shoot the cover of this book. As Co-Editors Richelle and I are very honored to have worked with Dr. Welch and hope this dedication will mean a great deal to him.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

PRESIDENT HOMER J. ADAMS

President Homer Adams has been involved in education and administration for thirty seven years. President Adams has served as President of Trevecca for nine years. When asked what he foresees for the future of T.N.C., President Adams replied, "I would like to provide more service to the Nashville area. I also see our enrollment continuing to grow. Since 1983 our enrollment has grown from 900 to 1700 students. I pray that this will continue."

Some of President Adams most memorable days here at T.N.C. are clearing our debt of one million dollars, the reaffirmation of the Masters of Education program, and the completion of the student life center.

President Adams enjoys reading, fishing, and gardening in his spare time. Along with these hobbies he enjoys spending time with his wife Beatrice, his son Jimmy, and his daughter Sara Johnson.

MOVING IN . . .

Welcome Back!

Dear Mommy
and Daddy,

I realize you've only been gone a couple of hours, but I miss you already. The dorm is beginning to fill up, and I'm meeting all kinds of really interesting people. Although, I'm quickly discovering how much I hate dusting and mopping, a few of my friends don't seem to mind. Also, my suite mate Evie Freeman moved in today.

Day, is she crazy! I noticed some girls seemed really excited to be back, it had TNC or bust in the back of their car window. Also this guy named Mac Heberlin hung around the dorm volunteering to move girls in. You know Dad, I think he might be a ball player.

I also met some seniors named Susan Cullen and Kathy Duncon. They seem to be pros at moving in. I also noticed that I was not the only kid having her parents move her in. You know, I wish I was still moving in so you were still here. I really miss you! I can't wait till break and I get to come home. I love you bunches!!!

REGISTRATION . . .

Lines, Classes, & People

Dear Mam
and Dad

Well, I survived college registration with only a few bumps and bruises. (Ha Ha). Actually, it wasn't all that bad. The lines were a bit long, but everyone was so friendly that I really didn't mind. The student workers were terrific. I met Michael Harris in the bookstore and Stan Sheridan at one of the registration tables. I also met some of the Darda staff when I signed up for my picture.

Though registration was tiring I did enjoy certain parts Parts like, the FREE Pepsi and pizza and the meeting of lots of new people And although I'm really liking it here, I still miss you greatly I love you both and pray for you every night Break is only 8 weeks away!!! I can't wait to see you!

Love,

CLUB RUSH . . .

We Want You!!!

Howdy Mom and Dad,

VECCA
ARENE
LLEGE

Just wanted to throw in a little of the Southern twang! You're last letter was great. I really enjoyed hearing about all that's going on at home. Let me tell you what I did last night at Trevecca.

I went to Club Rush. It was a lot of fun. All the different organizations on campus were there promoting themselves and the work they do. I met George Bratcher and Denise Sheltra who are with T.M.A. and M.O.T. I also met a few members of Civitan, a service organization on campus.

The club members really seemed to enjoy doing club rush. I met this guy named Steve Raper who appeared to have a lot of fun with his group, Circle K. I met most of the members of Theta Chi, a newer service club on campus. They weren't here when you went to Trevecca. My friends and I had a great time and enjoyed socializing more than anything last night. Well gotta go, the pizza's here. I still miss you, but I know I'm gonna make it till break. Take care.

FRESHMEN INAUGURAL DAYS . . .

Hi!

Well, Mom and Dad, it is finally over! Freshmen Inaugural Days have come and, thank goodness, gone. You know Dad, they now call them "Rat Days." (Isn't that special!) I'm sending you some pictures of my friends dressed-up in their "rat" clothing. Some of our Sophomore Rat Masters are also in the pictures.

You'll notice that they required us to eat off the cafeteria floor. However, it didn't make the food taste any better! Some of us were fortunate enough to wear signs. Others of us were fortunate enough to wear ridiculous clothing. I used to make fun of you guys in some of your old pictures. Be glad. You never looked quite like Kelly Ross or Joey Dunn. Their Rat Masters, Melinda Moore and Scott Knight, had obviously searched for hours to find clothing that ugly.

RAT-A-TAT-TAT

That Was Then . . .

"When I went to Trevecca, the only thing I had to do as a "Rat" was wear my clothes inside-out for the day. Boy, how times have changed." This remark, made by a long time Trevecca alumni, clearly shows that things always change. What once was an idea has now become one of Trevecca's greatest and most fun traditions. This tradition, which started with some mild antics, went on to include strange attire and costumes and now includes ridiculous signs and the infamous "kissing bandit." Throughout all the fun of the Freshman Inaugural Days, there is a bond that forms between both the Freshmen rat and the Sophomore Rat Master. This bond is sealed through the partaking of Holy Communion and usually grows into a friendship that lasts for years. Freshman Inaugural Days are certainly a tradition of both then and of now.

Even though we looked for the most part ridiculous, Freshmen Inaugural Days weren't all bad. There was a beautiful and very meaningful communion service at the end of the last day. I really made some very close friendships with the other "rats" and the Rar Masters. Besides, some day I'll be able to look back and tell my kids that I took part in one of Trevecca's longest traditions. I think my favorite part of "Rar Days" would have most certainly been the kissing bandit. Don't panic Dad, that's not me in the picture!!

FALL RETREAT . . .

Relaxation, Togetherness, And Growth

Hey
Mom and Dad

This past weekend was great! I took your advice and went on Fall Retreat. It was just like you told me your retreats at Trevecca were. The Speaker was Bruce Oldham. He's really funny and gave us some good ideas on how to increase our spiritual growth. About 35 people went, and we had a great time playing flag football during our free time. After the game, we got together for a group shot. We had all really grown close over the short weekend.

It was really nice to get away from cafeteria food for a while. Joey Dunn and Missy White seemed to enjoy the break better than any of us. Dwayne Gunter was our best cook by far. Of course, he had some help from Dean Gallup and Sam Green. But, even if the food would have been bad, I think we still would have enjoyed getting to know each other better or dinner.

Retreat was a special time of meeting people, relaxing, playing games and growing spiritually. Thanks for your suggestion. I had a blast and I'm so glad I went. Talk to you later.

Love,

Freedo

HALLOWEEN . . .

Ghosts, Goblins, And Fun.

Dear Mam and Dad,

Well Halloween has come and gone! We all had a really great time dressing up and going trick-or-treating in the darms. I walked into Vanda Sipes room and got really scared. We also had an all Schaal Halloween party out at the Riding Academy. They had all kinds of games to play. I really enjoyed watching Julie Hains stuff a banana in her boyfriends face.

We all had so much fun that I wish you could have been there. You would have had to dress up though, so my friends wouldn't know. They also played this really cool game where you try and pass a lifesaver to your partner on a toothpick that is in your mouth. Kim Allinder and her partner were really good at it.

Guess what Mom? They served my favorite food to eat HOTDOGS! I'm going to have to go for now, but please write me back real soon and tell me how your Halloween went.

I love you both,
Freedra Freshmon

HOMECOMING CORONATION

Congratulations Queen Denise

The Homecoming Coronation took place on Thursday November 12th. The event was put together by Mardon Day, Junior Class President, and the Junior Class Officers. They were assisted by Dr. Melvin Welch and the TNC Stage Band, directed by Dr. Stephen Farnsley. The girls all looked beautiful in their emerald green gowns as they made their way to center stage. After the introductions, the three Senior Attendants, Denise Franklin, Danelle Hyde, and Valerie Whittington gathered together to learn who would be the 1987 Queen. Denise Franklin, of Tarrant, Alabama, received a standing ovation as she was crowned Queen Denise. The coronation was a great success and all those responsible should be congratulated for a job well done.

That Was Then . . .

Tradition. That's where it all begins. Someone gets an idea or a notion and shares it with someone else and then it spreads and it grows and becomes tradition. That's all homecoming is. It's a time when those who began many of the traditions we enjoy come back to TNC to see how they've changed and to see what new traditions have appeared. Tradition is the basis of so many things at Trevecca. It's tradition which brings many of us here and begs many of us to return. Homecoming is probably the most special tradition we have at TNC. It is Trevecca's oldest tradition and is unique in that it has changed very little over the many years of Trevecca's heritage. Homecoming will always be special whether we experience it now as students and then as alumni.

HOMECOMING PARADE . . .

And The Tradition Goes On

Dear Mom and Dad,

It was so great of you to come to Trevecco for Homecoming. I had a really nice time with you and enjoyed meeting some of your old classmates. Since you went with me to the Homecoming Parade, I thought I'd send you some of the pictures I took. I got a really good shot of Queen Denise riding in her car. I also sent you a picture of Dr. Pennington, the Grand Marshall since you remembered him from your Trevecco days.

There should be a really good picture of the Circle K guys and their Trolley Car I believe the guys have grown better looking and more innovative since your days in it. Dad I sent you the most adorable picture of Mac Heaberlin of the Sigma Society floor. There is also a picture of Evie Freeman in her Trojan uniform and there should also be a picture of Susan Cullen and Brenda Boyd riding on the first place Civinette Floor.

Thanks again for coming up here for Homecoming. I enjoyed seeing you and I'll see you in a few weeks for Thanksgiving.

First Runner Up
Pam Shirley

Second Runner Up
Melinda Moore

The Valentines Pageant was put on again this year by the sophomore class under the direction of President, Beth Henderson. The theme for the pageant was back in the war era and was written and directed by Jeff Wells. Jeff did a wonderful job, because the pageant was a total success.

The Master of Ceremonies for this years pageant was Mr. Gerald Willis and his wife. They truly added to the success of the pageant. The sophomore class did an outstanding job and deserves a large pat on the back for a job well done.

GONG SHOW . . .

Gong, Gong, Gong!!!

Hi Mom and Dad,

I went to the Gong Show, sponsored by Thero Chi, tonight. Did they have that when you were here? It was all kinds of fun. The pastor from Colvory Church, Lone Lomon, was the host of the show. He kept coming out in these ridiculous outfits. I think the best part, though, was the judges they had. Jeff Wells dressed up as the Church Lady, Scott Adkins did his impersonation of Pee Wee Hermon, and Deon Gallop was Joe Stroit. What

o group of judges

Craig Adams, Mark DeYoung, Mark Phillips, and Cy Pelton were the members of the band that played that night in between the acts. All of the acts were really funny! The girls in Sigma Society did a Lip Sync routine of some of their favorite singers. Beth and Rice and Ruthann Ring did a really good impersonation of twins together. Dolly Parron was also there. Actually it was Kris Feazell dressed like her, but she was just as good. Over all the evening was really a good time for everyone who participated or came to just enjoy the show.

I'm going to go study now, but I'll write again soon.

VARIETY SHOW . . .

We Had Music, Laughs, And Fun.

Dear Mom and Dad,

Well I took your advice and went to the Circle K Variety Show. They still do everything just like Dad said they did when he was here in Circle K. The members did all these really crazy skits between the acts. Preston Cannon and Kendall Poole made this disgusting mixture of things for David Hess to eat. This was only one of the silly antics that went on.

There were a lot of really funny acts there. For instance Sigma Society did their imitation of the members of Circle K by dressing up like them and "roasting" a short song about each one. It made the audience fall over laughing! Mark DeYaung did a great job playing the guitar and a few guys such as Rob Melran, Tim Pirzer, Kenny Michael, Joel Williams, and Brian Brawn sang a little for us. I'm going to write you again real soon and you do the same. Hugs and Kisses, Freedo Freshman

FIFTY'S PARTY . . .

Rock Around The Clock.

Hi Mom and Dad,

How are you two "Hip Dudes" doing? If you are wondering why I am talking this way it's because I just got back from the fifty's party sponsored by Sigma Society. Everybody came dressed up in fifty's costumes and we ate hamburgers and hotdogs until, I thought we would all get very sick. We all participated in a lot of games. Suzanne and Linda were in a bubble-gum blowing contest; DeWayne Sadler did very well in the pie eating contest; and Joey, Stuart and Jeff entertained us with a song.

Corrine Burns did a really funny imitation of Shirley from LaVerne and Shirley. We all laughed very hard. They also had a best couples contest there. Rhonda Taylor and Brian Hulse won, but Carhy Scruggs and DeDe Jahson (alias Dave) gave them a run for their money.

All the money from the night went to benefit a charity that was selected by Sigma Society. The evening took a large amount of hard work, but it all looked as though it was worth it.

Do you two remember when you were kids in the fifty's? Write me and tell me about it.

Love,

HOLLYWOOD SQUARES . . .

See The "Stars" Shine

Hi Mom and Dad,

I went to Trevecco's very own version of Hollywood Squares this weekend. It was sponsored by Thero Chi which is a service club on campus. You could tell by the stage appearance that they put a lot of work into the event. They had a varied group of stars for their show. PeeWee Hermon, alias Scott Adkins, and Dr. Anne Fuquo, alias Koren Miller, were some of the participants. Sam Greene, who dressed up as Mr. John Dix and D. Fuquo were a riot together.

Some of the other "stars" included "The Church Lady", alias Jeff Wells, Dr. John Dix, alias Sam Greene, and the "TNC Trojan", alias Evie Freeman. They were all a barrel of laughs to watch. It was put on about the same way as the Hollywood Squares on television is directed. The contestants would agree or disagree with the "stars" answers and win x's and o's on the board. It was a lot of fun to attend and we had a really great time. Think of me next time you play tic-tac-toe. x's and o's,

CHRISTMAS PARTY . . .

We Celebrated His Birth

Dear Mam and Dad,

Merry Christmas! Trevecca has definitely got the Christmas spirit and you can feel it in the air. For instance, last night we all went to the annual Christmas Party sponsored by Sigma Society and Civinettes. They had wonderful food there for everyone and a whole bunch of fun games for us to participate in. OH Dad, Santa Clause was there too! It was Preston Cannon dressed up like you used to do when I was little. A whole bunch of my friends were there such as Rick Quinn, Rob Melton, Mardan Day, Scott Winchell and David Winchester.

I noticed that everyone there was having a really good time singing Christmas carols and fellowshiping with each other. Corhy Scruggs found some good fellowship time with one of her favorite people, "Frosty the Snowman". For the final big thing, Sigma and Civinettes sang a few choruses for all those who attended. They were under the direction of Charles "Mr. Excitement" Brooks. I will be home in a few weeks for break. I'll see you then.

Seasons Greetings

WIN, LOSE, OR DRAW . . .

A Game For The Entire Campus

Dear Falks,

Well this weekend it was the Win, Lose, or Draw game that we all went to see. It was sponsored by Civinettes which is a service club on campus. The host for the evening was the club sweetheart, Wes Nalon. He was very witty and funny! A lot of the different clubs on campus and the class officers participated in the show. They also had some really funny commercials done by some members of Civinettes that came in between the games.

Pam Day, Bobbi Skelton, and Penny Blier did an act of the "Chipmunks"

The winner of the games was Circle K's team. All the teams that participated had a really good time. Some of the teams that really made the competition rough were Thera Chi's team, the sophomore class team, and Sigma Society Blue team. The Sigma Society teams dressed up for the occasion as celebrities. I'm going to run for now, but please write soon.

Love Ya,

DATING GAME . . .

Handsome Bachelors And Pretty Bachelorettes

Dear folks,

Another exciting event at good ole T.N.C. This time it was the "Dating Game" sponsored by Sigma Society. What a blast! Many of my friends were participants this year. Larry Whiraker seemed to have made the perfect choice with the smile he had on his face all night. Donna Wray looked totally baffled by the mystery man's questions. Chrissy Howell was an excellent hostess for the evening of fun.

The highlights of the evening were the totally outrageous commercials. Andi Hirtle and Maria Hall found a sure way to cure troublesome acne. The crowd for the evening were many and enthusiastic. Shirley Melron, Craig Keen, and Elisha Keen were some of those who enjoyed their evening out at the "Dating Game." The whole evening was loaded with fun, excitement and anticipation. Did they do these kind of things when you were here? Until next time.

CIRCLE K VOLLEYBALL MARATHON . . .

24 Hours Of Rugged Volleyball

Circle K held their fifteenth annual Volleyball Marathon to benefit Y-CAP. They raised approximately two thousand dollars by playing volleyball with various clubs and organizations for twenty four hours without a break. Some of the members really got into the spirit of competition by getting their hair cut and having their club emblem put on the side of their head.

Various celebrities showed up for this year's marathon. These celebrities included Gary McSpadden from the Gairther Trio, Lisa Welchel from the Facts of Life, and Mike English. Some of the organizations they played included a semi-pro team from Ingram Book Company, inra-mural volleyball champions from Vanderbilt, and a team from First Church.

That Was Then . . .

Circle K started the tradition of the Volleyball Marathon fifteen years ago this year. The club started this charity fund raiser in hopes of its continuing on through the years and to establish Circle K as an organization that does a great deal of service for the community around them.

SPRING PLAY . . .

Alice In Wonderland

This years spring play was "Alice In Wonderland". The leading role of Alice was played by Suzanne Diffenderfer. A great amount of time and hard work was put into the production of this play.

The cast for the play spent many months and hours of hard work for the smooth production of the play. Pictured here you can see how hard they all worked in practice.

The beautiful costumes were also another example of the hard work that was put into the play. Each of the characters had on very lively and creative costumes.

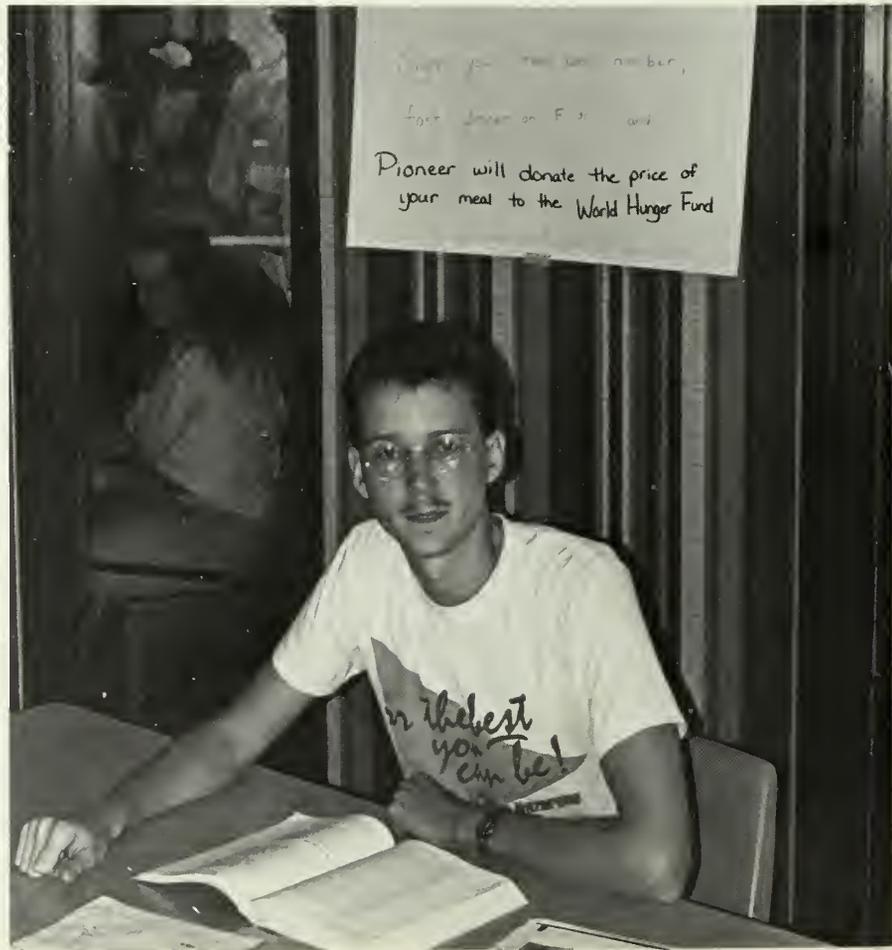

The play was very entertaining and the audience seemed to enjoy themselves very much. Everyone will have to laugh when they remember Andy Rutherford and how silly and cute he looked. "Alice In Wonderland" will have to be remembered as very entertaining.

SPIRITUAL RENEWAL WEEK . . .

Feel The Spirit

Spiritual Renewal Week is a time that is looked forward to each year with great anticipation among the students. It is a time where students such as Kipp McClurg, Kothy Johnson, and Larry Jones had a chance to speak to their fellow students and give their personal testimonies in hopes of helping their classmates grow spiritually. This year the week went great. The students seemed to get a great deal out of the student speakers and seemed to respond to what they were saying in a very productive way. At the close of Spiritual Renewal Week it was easy to see that it had been a wonderful experience for all those that attended the services and a large number of lives were touched.

FIRST SEMESTER HUDDLE . . .

Brings The Blankers And The Fun

Hi Mam and Dad,

Today I went to the first semester "Huddle" sponsored by Circke K. What we did was bring our blankers and our balls and frisbees and played games and had fun making new friends. It was a great time for all those that participated. I made some new friends there such as Beth Rice, Theresa Bee, and a bunch more.

There was a pretty good sized turnout for the event. Circle K provided refreshments and a film for later in the evening. I liked this event a great deal because it was a chance for us freshmen to get to know the upper classmen. Some other people that I met were Tomi McWhorter and Leigh Ann Smith. I also met a really cute couple, Jennifer and Micky. I'll write you again soon and tell you what else is happening.

Love,
Freedo

FALL PLAY . . .

Mouse Trap

Dear Mam and Dad;

I went to the first play of the year last night. It was a murder mystery written by Agatha Christie. The person that got murdered was Mrs. Boyle who was played by Gina Smith. The murderer was played by David Denzing who was the sargent investigating the murder. Sargent Tratter's sister was played by Suzanne Diffenderfer, who did an excellent job of the part.

Troy Smith and Rebecca Ford were two more of the cost members. The crowd really seemed to enjoy the play. After the play was over, I heard a great number of people say that the costumes and the stage design were very much. You could tell that the crew worked hard on it. Read the book about it and tell me how you like it.

With love,
Freedra

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

From left to right: Dr. John Chilton, sponser; Lisa Williams, secretary; Mary Beth Frank, vice president; Donna Boles, treasurer; Kathy Johnson, president; Cindy Shirley, SGA representative; Suzie Middleton, chaplain

Kathy Johnson, senior class president, is 22 majoring in social welfare. She is a native of Nashville where she grew up as the youngest of five. Kathy's favorite hobby is devoting a large proportion of her time to the Rescue Mission. When asked what her year in office has meant to her, Kathy replied, "It has honestly been my best year in college because I got to serve as President: Thanks for the opportunity."

JEFFREY LADALE ALLEN

Govern all by thy wisdom, O Lord, so that my soul may be serving Thee as Thou dost will, and not as I may choose. Do not punish me, I beseech Thee, by granting that which I wish or ask, if it offend Thy love, which would always live in me. Let me die to myself, that I may serve Thee, who in Thyself art the true life. Amen.

— St. Teresa of Avila

"... I don't mean to say I am perfect. I haven't learned all I should even yet, but I keep working toward that day when I will finally be all that Christ saved me for and wants me to be.

No, dear brothers, I am still not all I should be but I am bringing all my energies to bear on this one thing: forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I strain to reach the end of the race and receive the prize for which God is calling us up to heaven because of what Christ Jesus did for us ..."

Phillipians 3:12-14 TLB

A person will get only what she seeks
You must choose your goals carefully
    Know what you like
    and what you do not like
Be critical about what you can do well and what you can not do well
Choose a career of lifestyle that interests you and work hard to make it a success Enter a relationship that is worthy of everything you are physically and mentally capable of
Be honest with people, help them if you can but don't depend on anyone to make life easy or happy for you
Only you can do that for yourself
Strive to achieve all that you like
Find happiness in everything you do
    Love with your entire being
    Make a triumph
    of every aspect of your life

Four years . . .
Where have they gone?
Or have they gone?
Memories made . . .
Why these years?
Just memories?

Relationships . . .
An expression of love,
A kind word,
A friendly smile,
A warm hug
All given . . . for relationship

Why learn?
Why excel?
Why grow?
For relationship —
Sharing with others just a glimpse . . .
Of Jesus.

At the beginning
Questions . . .
Questions . . .
No answers came

I learned.
I worked.
I worshipped.
Answers were vague

Myself . . .
Myself . . .
All was myself.

God spoke . . .
"Relationship . . .
All is for relationship."
I listened.

An answer? But how?

Friends . . .
A church — kids who need love
and a teacher.
A dorm floor —
an opportunity to serve.
Inner-city Chicago —
kids who need Jesus.

People —
Relationships . . .

Jesus died . . .
for relationship.

At the end
Relationship — an answer?
A goal

Gratefulness —
To friends
To professors
And especially to my parents
Who have shown me Jesus
Through relationship

My prayer . . .
That Jesus be seen
Through my relationship
To others.

An answer?
A lifestyle

To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people
And the affection of children;
To learn the appreciation of honest critics
And endure the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty;
To find the best in others;
To leave the world a bit better,
Whether by a healthy child,
A redeemed social condition,
Or a job well done;
To know even one life has breathed easier
Because you lived;
This is to have SUCCEEDED.

I will be found by you," declares the Lord, "and will bring you back from captivity."

"But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in Him, nor having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ — the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death, and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do. Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."

Sophomore Class President, Beth Henderson, is a Nashville native who attends Grace Church of the Nazarene. She majors in Psychology and plans to complete her minor in Professional Education. She greatly enjoys Trevecca and came here in large part due to her family lineage. Both of Beth's parents and her sister attended Trevecca. Beth is very involved not only with the Sophomore Class, but actively participates in Theta Chi, a service club, and the Student Government Assembly. When asked what she likes best about being class president, Beth replied, "The planning of the Valentine's pageant and banquet. I helped coordinate several pageants of this nature in high school and greatly enjoyed doing it." When asked what she liked least Beth just nodded and said, "Nothing! I love it!"

Dale Benson, freshman class president, is from Homestead, Florida. He is nineteen years old and is majoring in religion. He enjoys playing baseball, tennis, and basketball. He also likes going to the beach and listening to many different kinds of music. He has one sister who lives here in Nashville. When asked about his thoughts of Trevecca, he said, "I like the Christian atmosphere here. The professors are very caring and it's very easy to make friends." Dale hopes that he has put his best effort into making sure his class has a good start here at Trevecca.

CLIQUEES THAT CLICK . . .

. . . Here's Where They're Found

If you stop and take a good look around you can see cliques that stand out in all areas of your life. Circle K, Sigma, and the other clubs are some of the more apparent ones, but such groups as music majors and education majors seem to clique together also. The one thing that is really great about Trevecca is that we all know that we all can belong to that one clique that counts and that is the clique of Christians.

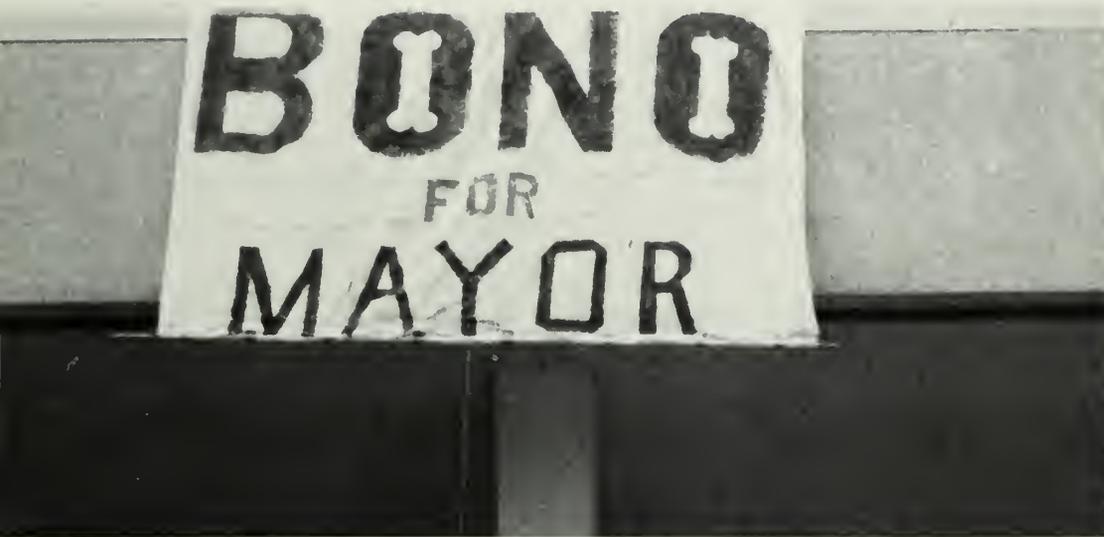

Above: Chapel time is a great time to see some of your favorite groups sitting together to share a time of fellowship in the Lord together. Middle Right: Students also clique together during the time they spend in the cafeteria eating and socializing. Right: Trevecca's students have no problem bringing their separate cliques together to join hands in fun and times of worship.

MAYOR BONER ELECTION . . .

. . . A Helping Hand From TNC

The 1987-88 academic year saw many changes in the positions of government on both a local and state level. Trevecca students proved to be extremely active in the election process by volunteering both time and energies to the campaign headquarters based throughout the city. Students and clubs, both social and academic, became involved in the Mayor Boner campaign by stuffing envelopes, preparing bulk mailing, answering campaign office telephones, and actually walking the streets of the city involving themselves in door-to-door campaigns. Mayor Bill Boner, a one time basketball head coach at the Hill, is and has always been a strong supporter of Trevecca Nazarene College. TNC was very enthusiastic about the Boner Mayoral Campaign.

Officers: Beth Henderson, Kim Jahnsan, Caral Cunningham, Vanda Sipes, Bronwyn Tatum, Laura Stawe, Cindy Lancaster, Glenda Derwiler, Melinda Moore

Theta Chi is not just another all female club, but it is another family here on Trevecca's Campus. The purpose for this organization is to create a Christian fellowship for its members, to provide community services that will benefit Nashville and its area, to provide school functions for the students, and to provide social activities to enhance fellowship.

From left to right, first row: Susan Cullen, fund raising; Michelle Knorrs, president; Debbie Harran, secretary; second row: Valerie Whittington, chaplain; Sandra Stapleran, historian; third row: Tracey Walker, treasurer; Chris Kaan, vice president

Phi Bera Lambda is Trevecca's business club. The club is composed of business majors and minors. Phi Bera Lambda is involved in annual state and national level business competitions. The 1988 state competition winners are as follows: Debbie Harran, first place; Melanie Mills, first place; Sandra Stapleran, first place; Susan Cullen, second place; Tim Sraggs, second place; Amy Wolfgang, second place, and Chris Kaan, third place.

TREV-ECHOES

TREV-ECHOES

Trev-Echoes is a student publication run by students under direct control of the faculty of Trevecco. It is published bi-weekly with the exception of holidays and scheduled semester breaks. "Trev-Echoes is truly an experience for young adolescents interested in becoming journalists. One can learn the true meaning of humility by serving Trevecca's staff and administration," states Teressia Ward, editor.

trev-echos

That Was Then . . .

Trev-Echaes was established in 1944 as the student publication here at Trevecca. The newspaper has grown through the years in size and quantity. The paper is put out bi-weekly and serves the campus well as one of Trevecca's proud traditions.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Trevecca's SGA is essentially a large group of elected officials who meet each week to attempt to improve the college and college life in general. Their positions are numerous and their jobs are varied, but, in effect, they have a common purpose which is to maintain and uphold the ideals for which Trevecca is established.

CONCERT CHOIR

Concert Choir is the largest mixed choir of the music department. The choir consists of approximately fifty members that devote a great amount of time to their share in representing the college to others. The choir this year traveled to a variety of different places to minister through music. Among these were Alabama, Georgia, and Mississippi. The group this year has grown closer together and much closer to the Lord through their involvements in Concert Choir and their fellowship together. Concert Choir is under the direction of Brian Kilion.

TREBLE TONES

Treble Tones is the only all female singing group at Trevecca. The group is composed of approximately twenty members that represent Trevecca to various churches. Jaanne Taylor is the director of Treble Tones. She has brought a lot of new and fresh ideas to the group. The girls in the choir admire and appreciate her very much. The choir as a whole this year has worked very hard to accomplish a very good year for themselves. They have ministered to many area churches and have grown closer to each other and closer to Christ through their involvement in Treble Tones.

AMBASSADORS

From left to right: Fred Mund (director), Murphy Gill, Greg Johnson, Brian Sheltron, Stephen Triverre, Ron Privert, David Smirh, Russ Randall, Shane Saddler, Dan Blair, Brian Phelps, Finney Alvarez, David Shepard, DeWayne Gill, David Linens, Darren Moses, Jeff Skinner, Tim Pullin, Cyrus Pelton, Jeff Thompson, Wally Wilson, Tim Prater, Jeff Spangler, Bob Allen, Tim Johnson, Denny Wilson, Tim Queener, Darryl Gault, Steve Cleckner, Darrill Boyd, Kevin Simons

Who are the Ambassadors and what do they stand for? For starters, we are a group of young men who sing together during the week, travel during Spring Break to churches in the Southeastern United States, and to foreign countries in the summer. Our purpose is to spread the Gospel to others through God's message in song.

HAND BELLS

There are two hand bell ensembles each year, beginning and advanced. Although both groups are designed primarily as training groups, they do some performing. Traditionally they play for the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony. In addition they perform in chapel, for churches, in Trevecca Towers, and on departmental programs. The ensemble was begun about ten years ago when the Trevecca Womens Club purchased a 2-octave set of bells for the music department. Another octave was added as a memorial gift a few years later. Barbara McClain is the founder and director.

MADRIGALIANS

Madrigalians is Trevecca's newest singing group. This year the group is in their fifth year of performing. Madrigalians is a singing group that performs their music a capella, or without music. Their main performance takes place each year during the Holiday season. The group performs annually at the Christmas Tree lighting, that takes place shortly before we all go home for our break. This year's group has done an excellent job and has grown very close together, but most of all they have grown closer to the Lord through their friendships and music.

STAGE BAND

The Trevecca Stage Band is quite different from any other ensemble on campus. Directed by Stephen Farnsley, it consists of approximately twenty musicians that have a taste for different forms of music, such as the Big Band sound of the 40's to the upbeat sound of the 80's. This year the Stage Band hosted the Fifth Annual Stage Band Festival. Local high school jazz bands were invited to perform and be rated by visiting guest artists. Stage Band is a select group chosen from Wind Ensemble. They also had the privilege of performing for the Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis Club this spring.

WIND ENSEMBLE

Trevecca Wind Ensemble consists of approximately forty of the most talented instrumentalists on campus. To be a member of the band, one must be able to play an instrument and also be willing to attend class time rehearsals and practice outside of class on a regular basis. The band traveled to Kentucky this year for their spring tour on April 15-17. They performed concerts in the area churches and spent a few hours of leisure time at the Louisville zoo. Dr. Steven Farnsley directs this ensemble.

CANDIDS

TREVEDORES

From left to right, sitting: Kipp Nettles, Murphy Gill standing: Johnathon Trees, Ed Gonyea

The Trevedores is the oldest PR group on campus. Formally the "Trevecca Quartet," the Trevedores have been ministering for 22 years. They have represented the college well. The members have changed, but the quality of the music has stayed the same. The ministry has also stayed the same over the years. "I just wish I could make everyone on this campus see that we are not here to glorify ourselves; we are here to glorify God," says Murphy Gill who has been a member for four years.

MASTERPEACE

Master Peace is Trevecca's youngest PR group. Stan Sheridan shared the main purpose of the group in the following way: "It is to bring people, not just to the awesomeness of this great campus, but to the realization of the power and excitement of God." He goes on to say, "I know that my God has given me a special gift, as well as a bevy of opportunities and I will use them, . . . 'For God and God alone!'"

The most rewarding experience of being on a PR group to Pam Shirley is "seeing people we sing to, receive a blessing." She has a burden for Christians who have lost their excitement and joy in serving the Lord and knows her purpose for singing is accomplished "when the services are filled with the Holy Spirit and the people see a new perspective in living their lives in the Lord."

Master Peace travels on the weekends mostly. Lisa Marhisen, who is a sophomore, says, "It doesn't feel like I'm 'giving up' my weekend or breaks. It is a privilege for me to be doing something for my Lord. We travel for Christ first and Trevecca second. To think that God would pick ME!! What an honor!"

NEW DIRECTION

New Direction has had some changes through the years with its name and members. Even with the changes their purpose remains the same, "to be ministers for Jesus, representing our Savior in music first, Trevecca second," says Allan Gracey. According to Gary McCullough, who has been with the group for four years, "The only reward that makes it all worthwhile is not the scholarship or the prestige . . . but only the humbling presence of God ministering through us to others and to us again. It is a joy to discover that when people see you sing, they don't see you at all, they only see the glory of God unveiled."

This year New Direction has two freshmen in the group. Both Joyce Barnett and Tracy Bechtel agreed it was not hard getting adjusted to going to school and traveling. "I love being part of New Direction, we are just like family," replied Joyce. "I have grown spiritually, and I have learned more about myself. I'm thankful for the opportunity."

HONOR SOCIETY

The Trevecca Honor Society is an organization that recognizes academic achievers on campus. They may be selected if they complete two consecutive semesters with a minimum total of 24 semester hours and maintain a grade point average of 3.5. The club, as a whole, is established in order to promote truth, knowledge, and the pursuit of excellence in all things.

KINGS KIDS

Do you know the joy of walking through one of the worst neighborhoods in Nashville and have 20-30 children call out your name because they are happy to see you? Well, that's the feeling that people working with Kings Kids experience. The Outreach ministry for children utilizes the free time of Trevecca students to bring joy and laughter to some children who don't normally get the attention kids should get. The children this past year have seen a puppet show, walked in the Homecoming Parade at Trevecca, and have been witnessed to by the loving Christians that spend time with them. By working in Kings Kids one comes to understand that we are all the Kings Kids.

MISSIONS SOCIETY

The 1987-88 school year was indeed a busy one for the Trevecca Missions Club. In its last year under its present charter, the Missions Club was active both in conducting projects and in making financial contributions. Through a combination of two major fundraisers, about $750 in profit was made this year, most of it being contributed to missions' efforts. These efforts included sending Michelle Norris to Urbano '87 and donating a good amount to the Belize Project. Beginning next year, the Missions Club will be receiving a notional charter from the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship, the Christian campus branch of Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship. They will still continue to offer everyone interested an ever-increasing view of the World Missions effort.

MINISTRY OUTREACH TEAMS

Bottom row: Tim Huller, Denise Sheltra, Marilou O'Neal, Teresa Smith, Belinda Woods, Rhonda Maxley. Second row: Brenda Graybeal, Melanie Belew, Mary Weeks, Rhonda Margan, Stephanie Wordlaw, Linda Johnson, Kipp McClurg, Billy Collins. Third row: Jackie Griffin, Brian Shelton, Sonja Lanier, Mark Beecham, Jeff Spangler, Russ Randall, Rick Quinn, Brian Phelps, Jeff Skinner, Joe Bell, Al Stakes.

MOT is an Outreach Ministry sponsored by Campus Ministries of Trevecca. Teams are made up of students who want to serve the Lord in various ways and are dedicated in what they do. They volunteer to visit and serve in special services and ministries in local churches within a five to six hour driving distance from the campus. The teams this year have been involved mostly in youth revivals but also in children's crusades and church weekend revivals.

PEP BAND

The Trevecca Trojan Pep Band is composed of those who love to play a musical instrument and have a good time while doing it. Being a member of the Trojan Band requires several hours of practice, which the students donate during their free time. This extra time does not include the time they spend entertaining us at the ball-games. The Pep Band did a wonderful job this year motivating the crowd to cheer for the Trojans.

WNAZ has always been one of the outstanding communication pathways of our college. It is also one of the ways in which we reach our ra people, not only in the Trevecca community, but also to the people all around the Nashville area. We are letting people know about Christ through Christian music, whether it be contemporary Christian music or spirituol music. WNAZ sponsored the "Six Days of Praise" which raised money far station operations. WNAZ's director of broadcasting is Mr. David Deese.

A GROWING CHURCH FOR A COMING LORD

Father...

Thank You for Your involvement in our lives... in our life as a church and in our lives as individuals.

You are leading us. This we know. We do not understand it all, though sometimes we want to. Help us to be content to follow. Please don't let us lag behind Your leading. Please don't let us run ahead.

Father, we pray that you will allow each of us to experience the joy of obedience. As we seek Your will, please give us the joy of seeing you work out your plan in a way above anything we could have imagined.

Thank You for Your moving. Continue to guide us.

And now we move forward with one accord, heart in heart, hand in hand, towards the unfolding of Your new thing for us - in us - through us!

Amen!
